flu all week to win the long jump on his only leap of the day with a season best 23 feet, four 3/4 inches. "It's real nice to win. In the long jump, we knew we could get that 1-2-3 sweep and help beat Washington."

As expected, the Ducks came out strong from the get-go and dominated the field portion of the meet. Oregon's John Bello gave his team the early 36-22 lead after seven events when he won the shot put event with an NCAA provisional mark of 58-11 1/4.

Bello's day wasn't done, though, as he went on to capture first in the discus throw as well with a heave of 180-1.

"With a smaller field, compared to an invitational, you have to take more responsibility to pump yourself up and maximize your performance," Bello said.

Oregon captured first, second and third place in the long jump, shot put and javelin throw, respectively, where John Steigeler won with an NCAA provisional javelin mark of 221-5.

"We're out here to show everyone that Oregon's a powerhouse," Steigeler said.

Other Oregon field event winners included Jason Boness in the high jump (7-0 1/2) and Adam Kriz in the hammer (183-1).

The Ducks' strong performance in the field took much of the pressure off the sprinters who were trying to compete with All-American speedster Ja'Warren Hooker of Washington. Hooker, who doubled at the PAC-10 Championships in the 100- and 200-meters last spring in Eugene, tore up the track once again with wins in those two events.

"This is one meet you circle on your schedule," said Hooker, who ran a 10.32 in the 100 and a 20.82 in the 200. "I just enjoy coming here with this crowd. It's exciting. We got NCAA's, U.S. Nationals and Prefontaine here so I'll be back a few more times."

Perhaps the most important victories for the Ducks came in the hurdle races. Oregon scored valuable points when junior Micah Harris took first in the 100-meter high hurdles and junior Tim Overfield beat out the field in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles.

Harris, a transfer from Central Arizona, went below the 14-second mark for the third time this season, running a 13.95 to finish ahead of fellow Duck Terry Ellis (14.36 seconds).

"It's always great to score points that matter for the team," Harris said. "This is a great meet for us to break some of the ice of the top and get it under our belt and prepare us for the rest of the season."

Overfield set a new personal record with his time of 52.14 seconds when he finished ahead of Washington's Brad Goodrich (52.77) and Lorenzo (52.82).

"Perhaps the individual that had the best individual breakthrough today was Tim Overfield," Smith said.

Another strong performance came from junior transfer Simon Kimata, who celebrated his first ever meet at Hayward with a first-place finish in the 800-meters in a time of 1:50.76.

"I was really happy for Simon," Smith said of the Nyeri, Kenya, native. "It was a wonderful step for Simon. He looked really good today and ran a wonderful leg on the mile relay."

The Ducks also received an added boost by having some of the Oregon football players run in the sprints. Cornerback A.K. Keyes, linebacker Wesley Mallard and receiver Samie Parker all rid of their pads for a day to compete Saturday, despite playing in the football scrimmage on Friday.

Oregon hopes to keep its success going next weekend at the always competitive Mt. SAC Relays in Walnut, Calif.

"We're on a roll," Harris said.

shutout. Draper is now 18-8 this season.

"A couple of key hits broke the game open for us," Oregon State head coach Kirk Walker said. "We capitalized on their mistakes and had some timely hitting."

Wangler led off game two with a single and scored on an RBI single by Coe to give the Ducks an early 1-0 lead. The Beavers, however, answered with four runs in the top of the second off McMurren and added three more in the third. Defensive struggles again plagued the Ducks, as three of McMurren's seven runs allowed were unearned.

"Connie has been sick the last few days...she's a competitor, but she didn't have it in her today," Gamez said.

Oregon's only other run was an Andrea Vidlund fourth-inning homer.

Shortstop Kate Peterson hit a two-run home run in the bottom of the fifth to give the Ducks a 9-1 victory over San Jose State in the first game of Friday's doubleheader.

Wangler didn't allow a hit in four innings of work to pick up the victory.

Freshman Anissa Meashintubby improved her record to 3-1 while allowing just two hits in five innings in the second game. Meashintubby has a team-best 2.70 ERA.

The Ducks had 10 hits, while allowing just three, in the 4-1 victory against the Spartans.

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (April 16). Do you want to save the world? Are you eager to try out a crazy scheme to see if it will work? This is the year! Your imagination is running rampant in April. Don't try to remember all those ideas; write them down. Bring in the fusing in May, and do the research in June. Get yourself grounded in July, then get frisky again in August. Serve others in September, but let another fuss over you in October. In December, drop a fad that's bad for you. In February, join a team that makes you proud.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Today is an 8 — Your friends provide inspiration, but if you leave it all up to them, nothing will ever get done. Planning is important, but don't let it drag on too long. Light a fire under them! Give them one more day, tops, before liftoff.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Today is a 4 — You may feel as if you're carrying the weight of world on your shoulders. Rules and regulations are driving you nuts. Don't give up. Your day will come — before the end of the month, actually. Besides, all this weight lifting is making you stronger.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Today is an 8 — You're so popular, it's hard to fit all your invitations into one day. You'll have to move some over into tomorrow. For example, instead of having lunch with one friend, go with three or four. But don't include any who are the jealous sort.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — Today is a 4 — Some days, the best you can do is to think about how great things are going to be, further down the line. But, hey, a good fantasy is worth its weight in gold. Sure you're working too hard for too little, but just think of the experience you're gaining.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is an 8 — You're doing pretty well on your own, but with the right partner, you're awesome. Remember to be appropriate. If you have too much fun at work or in class, you could get into trouble.

Just keep your brain in gear.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is a 5 — Somebody else's problems could be taking up all your time. Somebody else's financial situation could be getting sorted out, but what about your own? Are you asking for an extension so that you can provide a service to someone else? Good for you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) — Today is a 9 — You don't mind when somebody wants to make the decisions. That frees you up to point out whatever modifications are necessary, to make things balance perfectly. Your input is needed, so don't doze off. You're very important to the success of the project.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) — Today is a 4 — There's just not enough of you to go around. By the time you get done working for others, there's hardly enough time or energy left for what you want to do at home. Work smarter instead of harder. Spend your down time planning.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is an 8 — You've got a frisky attitude, and you're curious. You want to know how things work, and you're not afraid to take a risk. This could move you outside the bounds of reality as you know it. What fun!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is a 5 — The money you need for a household project is close at hand. It might even be in your own pocket. You've got to believe there's more where that came from before you'll part with it, though. If you have a thrifty partner, you'll have to prove there's more money coming.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is an 8 — You're naturally inquisitive. You like to figure out what would happen if you did this or that. Your quest could now lead you into some very interesting new areas.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is a 4 — You don't have much room to be creative. You have to pretty much do what you're told, and quickly. Do it well, and you could make a tidy profit.
