But the Bruins made their comeback in the fourth, scoring four runs to tie the game. UCLA then added two more in the fifth and hung on for the 6-4 win.

Freshman Keira Goerl (24-1) picked up the win for UCLA.

"I thought we did a great job of battling," Gamez said. "We were focused throughout, and Connie threw a great ball game."

Vidlund and Custer hit grand slams in a double-header sweep against UC-Riverside on Thursday. Junior Kristi Hall hit two home runs in the second game, while sophomore Janell Bergstrom and junior Alicia Mickes each added a blast in the first game.

Anissa Meashintubby and Wangler each picked up a win against the Highlanders.

Junior catcher Missy Coe and the Ducks were swept by the Huskies this season. In the final week of the season, Oregon hosts Portland State for a double header Wednesday.

ished first with a throw of 157-5, Weingarten was second at 143-8 and Dinsmore was third at 136-1.

While the javelin unit didn't face very tough competition, star pole vaulter Niki Reed did on Sunday. Reed competed in the "elite" pole vault competition against four professional vaulters. The result was a fourth-place finish and a vault of 12-6 3/4. That jump was almost a foot lower than her season best.

Two other Oregon pole vaulters, competing in the regular field, had some success. Senior Holly Speight matched her season best of 12-6 to tie for second at Sunday's competition, while freshman Kirsten Riley jumped 12-0 to finish third.

"We had several really good performances on the field," Oregon head coach Tom Heinonen said, "led by Mo's hammer."

On the track, Cameo Davis finished third in the 400 hurdles with a time that was close to her season-best Pac-10 qualifying mark of 1:01.98. Freshman Ann Sullivan finished second in the 100 hurdles, with a time of 14.30. Macdonald competed in the 800 again Sunday, but ran a 2:15.31, more than eight seconds slower than her Friday time.

In other field events, freshman Rachael Kriz met her season best in the high jump and finished fourth in that event. Etter finished second in the discus and ninth in the hammer throws to complement her season best in the shot put.

The Ducks will return home next weekend for the Oregon Twilight, while Sullivan and junior Jenny Kenyon will head down to Berkeley, Calif., for the Pac-10 heptathlon.

James March (eighth, 52-9).

Junior Jason Boness equaled the NCAA provisional mark in the high jump, leaping 7-1 3/4, good enough for second place. 1996 Olympian Charles Austin won the high jump with a leap of 7-4 1/2. Sophomore Jake Horner placed sixth with a personal-best leap of 6-9.

Also earning runner-up honors were sophomore Adam Kriz, who threw a personal best by two feet in the hammer throw, and junior Ross Krempel in the 800 meters.

Oregon had only one entry in Friday's Cardinal Invitational in Palo Alto, Calif., senior Michael Kasahun. The Adwa, Ethiopia, native fell one second short of his personal best in the 5,000 meters with a time of 13:56. The time was an NCAA provisional mark, but was a second shorter than his performance at the Oregon Invitational last week.

The Ducks have two more chances for qualifying marks before the NCAA Championships, to be held May 30- June 5 at Hayward Field. The Ducks return home for the Oregon Twilight, their regular-season home finale, next weekend.
