runner-up performances in Berkeley.

Defending high jump champion Jason Boness broke the 7-3 barrier for the first time this season, but fell just short of repeating his title. Stanford's Michael Ponikvar cleared 7-4 1/2 for the win.

"I was a little disappointed," Boness said. "But I'm going to the NCAAs and I cleared 7-3. It's been the toughest Pac-10 high jump meet in a long time. It's going to be fun for nationals at home. I told [Ponikvar] to watch out for me at home."

Oregon junior Micah Harris improved upon his No. 3 seeding by placing second in the 110 hurdles. The junior college transfer ran an NCAA provisional qualifying time of 13.83 and trailed Washington State's Arend Watkins by only two-tenths of a second.

"I was relaxed and confident coming in," Harris said. "During the race I got out well and stayed controlled. I only had a slight slip after the seventh hurdle, so I had to slow a little to steady myself, but I was able to regain my speed and finish it off."

Oregon decathlete Santiago

Lorenzo and Billy Pappas, who placed first and third at last week's Pac-10 multi-events championships, contributed for the Ducks as well. Lorenzo followed junior Tim Overfield to the tape in the 400 hurdle final and placed seventh in the long jump (23-2). Pappas was right behind Lorenzo in the long jump for eighth-place (22-10 1/4).

vault, scoring all three entrants. True freshman Trevor Woods led Oregon with a fourth-place finish at 17-3. Junior Cody Howell made his first Pac-10 finals performance a memorable one with a sixth-place finish at 16-11. Sophomore Jason Slye tied for eighth at 15-11 1/4.

Sophomore Adam Kriz placed fourth in the hammer throw with a personal best toss of 194-8.

Samie Parker placed eighth in the 100-meters in a time of 10.67, although his preliminary time of 10.45 would have placed him third. The time puts Parker eighth on Oregon's all time top-10 list.

Sophomore Jason Hartmann and senior Michael Kasahun represented the Ducks in the distance races. Kasahun placed sixth in the 10,000-meters in a time of 29:56, with Hartmann following at 12th in 31:33. Kasahun came back on Sunday to place 14th in the 5,000-meters in 14:39.

Junior Ross Krempely made his second finals appearance in the 800-meters and finished in sixth place with a time of 1:51.4. "Individually, we had two Pac-10 winners, and two other runner-ups with one of those, Jason Boness, adding himself to the NCAA meet," Smith said. "The real story for us was all those fourth's, fifth's, sixth's, seventh's and eighth's. It's real easy for somebody to turn it off at the end of the race, but they hung in there and fought for those points."

"I thought in general we showed strong improvement."

Several Ducks look ahead now to the NCAA Championships at Hayward Field from May 30 through June 2.
