Sports brief

Russian Olympian to race in Pre

Twenty-year old Yuriy Borzakovskiy, who finished sixth at last summer's Olympic Games in the 800-meters, will be one to watch in that event at this Sunday's Prefontaine Classic at Hayward Field.

The Russian has had another spectacular year in 2001, as he was the 800-meter winner of the World Indoor Championships. His personal best time in the event is 1:44.43, which ranks him as the second fastest Junior athlete of all-time.

The Pre Classic meet record in the event is 1:44.62, set by Johnny Gray in 1996.

When watching him this weekend, be sure to keep track of his last 200 meters. In the home stretch of the event he is known for a hard kick that usually leaves his competitors in the distance.

Borzakovskiy will have plenty of competition, though, at this year's Pre Classic. His toughest competitor will most likely be 22-year old William Chirchir of Kenya. Chirchir's personal best in the 800-meters is an impressive 1:43.84 which he ran last year.

Other notable entrants in the event include Trinity Gray (2001 USA Indoor champion), Rich Kenah (World Championships bronze medalist), Khadevis Robinson (two-time Pre Classic champion), Patrick Nduwimana (2000 NCAA Champion for Arizona) and Osmar Dos Santos (Olympic semifinalist).

Sunday's Pre Classic will last from 11:45 a.m. to 2 p.m. and tickets for the event are still available at the Duck Ticket Office or by calling 346-4461.
