

Foaming the flames

Firefighters finish dousing a house at 543 Lawrence St. The house was engulfed in a fast-moving fire at 1:23 p.m., and within 20 minutes the Eugene Fire Department had it under control. Three male occupants in the house were evacuated with only minor injuries, and a pet iguana was saved. At least 11 people were displaced from their housing as a result of the damage.

he said.

The Knight Library will also be trimming back its hours, even though people will still be taking advantage of its services.

Audra Loyal, billing coordinator with the Knight Library, said some students will frequent the library because of summer term, as will many community members. Loyal also said all the information and resource desks will be fully staffed.

"It is nice when it is quiet," she said. "But at the same time it can be a little boring."
