Meet Me In The Moon Room

by RAY VUKCEVICH

Thirty-three weird, wonderful stories concerning men, women, teleportation, wind-up cats, and brown paper bags, whimsical and unsettling, describing family relationships, bad breakups, and travel to outer space.

Thursday, July 19th • 7:30 P.M.
Browsing Room, Knight Library

It's Summer!

Stay cool in the river, at school or hanging-out around town in sandals from Teva.

other officers will log some overtime hours patrolling the area with the security Conde hires each year.

"It's not free to the taxpayers, that's for sure," he said.

Burright said people in violation of drug or any other offenses will be escorted off the property and arrested. Although most people were "relatively friendly" last year, Burright said his officers made a number of minor arrests, although he did not know the exact total.

But Rasmussen said even with the extra attention on Conde's part, the festival's main purpose is still to create a festive and informational environment.

"It's a cool chance for people to learn about stuff they don't necessarily come across," he said.

multi-act Madison Square Garden show right after Madonna started her tour.

Finally, Sony has sued country's crossover lasses The Dixie Chicks after contract renegotiations broke down this week. The Chicks demanded more money, and when Sony gave the thumbs-down, the girls began threatening to join another label, which is what Sony is suing to stop.

Best-bet concert for the week: Calvin Johnson (of K Records and Dub Narcotic Sound System) at the W.O.W. Hall on Tuesday.

Jeremy Lang is an associate editor of the Emerald, and he wishes Sleater-Kinney would play Eugene just once. He can be reached at jang@gladstone.uoregon.edu.
