An Emerald look at University history

From the Oregon Daily Emerald, Oct. 17, 1916:

On to California!

The team leaves tomorrow night for the Sunny Southland. Saturday they play the first conference game of the season. It's going to be a hard pull for the boys to bring the bacon home.

125TH ANNIVERSARY

Part of a bistorical series

California with its student body has a rooting force that can rift the skies.

And from all reports the California team is unbeatable. Husky and coached in Eastern methods it will be a test of the East against the West on the Berkeley gridiron Saturday. ... And to let those football boys know just how loyal every University Student is everyone should Hurrah for the lemon-yellow, and may she bring home the bacon! hurrah for the Bez! Hurrah for Bill! Rah rah! rah! for every man on the team, and glory for Oregon! ...

May every face turn purple with excitement; may lessons be forgotten for the moment; may pretty personalities be case on the winds. Let the Oregon spirit take possession of your bodies and souls and dismiss everything but the glory of Oregon; the victory at Berkeley Saturday.
