

ALL YOU CAN EAT
SPAGHETTI
 & garlic bread
$3.50
 Every Tuesday
PIZZA
PETE'S
 2506 Willakenzie 344-0998
 Oasis Plaza
 2673 Willamette 484-0996
 27th and Willamette

LSAT INTENSIVE REVIEW

- Intensive classroom format
- Scheduled just before the LSAT
- 2/3 of our students score 158+
- 40 cities nationwide
- $349

prepmaster.com

Volleyball

continued from page 5

lot of emotion and has a lot of speed," Ferreira said about one of the team's youngest players. "She's done a spectacular job in her growth and development."

Listed as a setter in the Oregon media guide, Westendorf has spent the majority of her time this season on the outside, which is perfectly fine with her. In fact, she had never even played the setter position until she was trained to do so this season with the Ducks.

"I love hitting," she said. "Hitting has been my forte all the way. I'm very comfortable on the right side."

After posting six kills last weekend, including five against Arizona, Westendorf has 19 kills on the season in limited duty, but is beginning to work her way into the lineup. She started against Arizona, and doesn't look to give up the spot anytime soon.

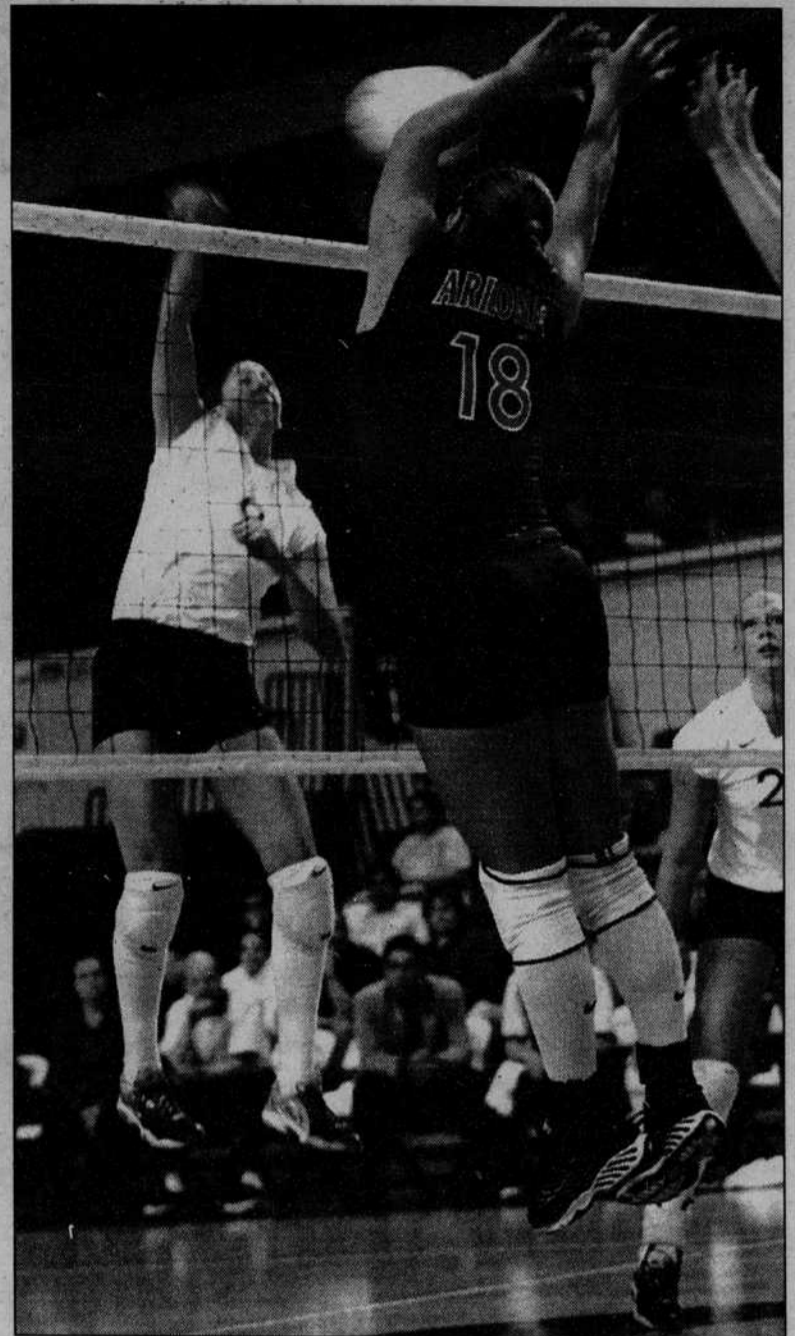

"It feels great," she said about her increased playing time. "Just being on the court with everyone and being a part of it is an amazing feeling, and I'm really stoked to be here right now."

Closs and Murphy go home

Closs and sophomore Lindsay Murphy return to their hometown when the Ducks travel to Spokane to battle the Zags. Closs starred at West Valley High, earning all-state accolades before playing at Fresno State the last two seasons.

Murphy, on the other hand, rivaled Closs' senior season with a great one of her own. While earning first-team all-Greater Spokane League honors her senior season, Murphy captained Mead High to the state championship.

The two look to relive old memories and add some new ones when they battle Gonzaga tonight.

Jonathan House Emerald

Senior outside hitter Monique Tobbagi and the Ducks hope to start the second-half of the season on a high note tonight at Gonzaga.

FLESHWORKS

Custom Tattoos Exotic Body Piercing

State Licensed Hospital Sterilization

Student Discount Walk Ins Welcome

Call For Appointment

1430 PEARL ST.
 EUGENE, OR.
 (541)434-5611

DISCOVER VISA MasterCard

Sports brief

Interim softball coach named

Brent Rincon has been selected interim head coach of the softball program. Athletic Director Bill Moos announced Friday. Rincon, who was hired in August as one of two new assistants, takes over following the resignation of Rick Gamez on Oct. 1. Gamez was 168-164-1 in five seasons and resigned his post after financial irregularities in the team's accounts were discovered.

Prior to being hired at Oregon, Rincon served as the athletic director and assistant principal at Tempe High in Arizona. Rincon also served as the head coach at two Arizona high schools — Corona Del Sol and McClintock.

Oregon assistant coach Jennifer Jaime will serve as the first assistant on an interim basis as well. Jaime played at Oklahoma and was part of the 2000 national championship team, which finished the season 66-8.

Women golfers finish 16th

Kathy Cho shot a 3-over 75 on Sunday as the Oregon women's golf team finished 16th at the Stanford/Pepsi Invitational, being played at the par-72, 6,154-yard Stanford Golf Course.

For the tournament, Cho, a senior from Honolulu, Hawaii, had rounds of 79-74-75 to tie for 44th at 228.

Freshman Johnna Nealy had a final round 79 to tie for 76th at 240, while junior Kim Melrose finished 79th at 241 after carding a 79 on Sunday.

Tulsa ran away with the team title, shooting a 285 Sunday to defeat USC and Vanderbilt by 17 strokes.

Oregon's 946 total easily outdistanced Washington State's last place 969.

— From staff and wire reports great people. great fun. great experience.

Don't miss out.
 Work for your college paper.

For more information on how to freelance, for the Oregon Daily Emerald call 346-5511.

Oregon Daily Emerald

Virtual Office Systems Inc.
 In Partnership with
The University of Oregon Bookstore
 3131 West 11th Ph. 343-8633 Open Mon-Sat 10-6

AMD Duron™ 750
"Competitor"
$469.99

- GVC GT 133KT Board
- 32 MB TNT 2 Video card
- 10 GB 7200 RPM Drive
- 128 MB 133 MHz RAM
- Monitor Additional

Add 17" .27 Monitor, $170.00
 With Duron 1000, add $60
 Win 98 SE not available

Intel Pentium 4®
1.5 GHz System
$1099.99

- Intel 850 Motherboard
- 32 MB GeForce 2 MX
- 30 GB 7200 RPM Drive
- 128 MB RIMM Memory
- 17" .27 SVGA Monitor

With a 1.6 GHz P 4, $1129.99
 With a 40 Gig WD, $1109.99
 Add a 19" Monitor for $90

Windows XP
 available now
 with ANY new
VOS
Computer!

All VOS systems include ATX case, Windows 98 SE or ME, 52X CD, 56K v.90 modem, mouse, keyboard, floppy, sound, stereo speakers, warranty.

VOS Inc. Systems are also available at the UO Bookstore. Parts available only at VOS Inc.
 Prices good through 10/26/01. AMD, K7, Athlon and Duron are trademarks of AMD, Inc. Specs subject to change. www.voscomputers.com

Pac-10

continued from page 5

"I don't need a computer. Teams are going to fall," Miami head coach Larry Coker told the Associated Press. "We saw three undefeated teams fall last week. The only thing we can control is to make sure we're not one of them."

Rounding out the rest of the BCS top-10 was Virginia Tech, Texas, Michigan, Maryland and Tennessee.

Oregon's Howry named Pac-10 Player of the Week

Oregon wide receiver Keenan Howry had an impressive day receiving Saturday, catching nine passes for 152 yards and two touchdowns.

But it was what he did returning punts in the Ducks' 49-42 loss to Stanford that caught the attention of the Pac-10. The junior from Los Alamitos, Calif., returned five punts for a league record 186 yards.

Among his returns was an 81-yard dash up the Oregon sideline that almost ended in the end zone, except he outran his last blocker and got tripped up inside the 10-yard line.

He reached paydirt in the third quarter, though, when he outran defenders down the Stanford sideline and took it 69 yards for the touchdown to put his team ahead, 35-21.

In all, Howry tied the Oregon record for single-game all-purpose yards by amassing a total of 338. The last time a Duck reached the 338-yard mark came on Sept. 18, 1971, when receiver Bobby Moore caught 152 yards worth of passing and totaled 186 yards in punt returns.

Moore then moved on to the NFL, where he changed his name to Ahmad Rashad.

Washington sophomore quarterback Cody Pickett earned the league's Offensive Player of the Week award for his 29-for-49 passing performance for 455 yards and three touchdowns. He also rushed in the three-yard score with 13 seconds left to deliver Washington the 31-28 win at home against Arizona.

As for defense, Arizona State safety Alfred Williams was awarded for the eight tackles he recorded against Oregon State in the Sun Devils' 41-24 victory over the Beavers.