

Fall Graduate School Fair Graduate and Professional Schools

Table	School	School Profile
B98	Alliant International University	On July 1 2001, the California School of Professional Psychology (CSPP) and the United States International University combined to form Alliant International University, an independent, not-for-profit institution of higher learning. CSPP, founded in 1969 with the help from the California Psychological Association(CPA), aimed to meet a new need for clinical psychology, the largest in the country, and it is responsible for more than half the practicing clinical psychologists trained in California.
B99	Bastyr University	Bastyr University is one of the world's leading academic centers for advancing knowledge in the Natural Health Sciences. A 2-decade pioneer in Natural Medicine, Bastyr continues to be in the forefront of developing the model for 21st century medicine. We offer programs in nutrition, acupuncture/oriental medicine, naturopathic medicine, and more.
B100	Chapman University - School Of Law	Law school located in Southern California offering students the opportunity to earn either a JD or JD/MBA. Special emphasis programs include Tax; Real Estate, Environmental, Land Use; and Advocacy & Dispute Resolution.
B101	George Fox University - Graduate School	George Fox University is nationally recognized for academic excellence. Prepare for your future at a University noted for a unique commitment to christ-centered learning and a wide variety of programs supported by stellar professors who are experts in their respective disciplines.
B102	Golden Gate University - School of Law	Golden Gate University School of Law is a 100 year old law school in the heart of the San Francisco financial district accredited by the American Bar Association. We offer full time day and part time evening programs. We pride ourselves on providing joint degree programs, twelve clinical programs, and nine specialization certificate programs, providing all of our students with practical legal experience in which to apply the theories they are learning.
B103	Hamline University - School of Law	From our nationally ranked Dispute Resolution Institute to our ten concentrations, ranging from Children and the Law to Business Representation, at the Hamline University School of Law we prepare our graduates to do more than practice law; we encourage them to contribute to society's public and private advancement. The Hamline education is a combination of learning the theoretical and the practical, analyzing domestic and international law; and considering public interests and private interests. At Hamline we measure the success of our faculty by the accomplishments of our students and graduates. The Hamline University School of Law, a private university, a public commitment, a global perspective.
B43	Idaho State University - Department of Physical/Occupational Therapy	Graduate school
B104	Lewis and Clark College - Northwestern School of Law	Graduate school
B105	Loyola Law School	Graduate School
B106	Midwestern University	Midwestern University is a health professions university with programs in medicine, pharmacy, physician assistant, physical therapy, occupational therapy, and biomedical science.
B107	Monterey Institute of International Studies	The Monterey Institute of International Studies provides a rigorous graduate education for students who seek professional careers in international settings. The Institute offers graduate programs in International Business, International Policy Studies, Public Administration, International Environmental Policy, Commercial Diplomacy, Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages, Teaching Foreign Language in Translation & Interpretation.
B108	Naropa University - Creative Spirituality	Awakening Imagination for Transformation Creation Spirituality integrates the wisdom of Western spirituality and global indigenous culture with the emerging scientific understanding of the universe and the passionate creativity of art. The Master's curriculum of cosmology, spirituality, art-as-meditation, and ritual-making brings about transformation in students and prepares them to be of service with skills and intellectual resources for transforming society, work and worship.
B109	National College of Naturopathic Medicine	The National College of Naturopathic Medicine, located near downtown Portland, offers a Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine (N.D.) degree and a Master of Science in Oriental Medicine (M.S.O.M.) degree. With the college's academic emphasis in holistic, preventative medical education, both degree programs focus not only on technical excellence, but also on patient-centered care. Certificate programs are also offered in homeopath, naturopathic obstetrics, Qigong, and Tsiatsu.
B110	New England School of Law	New England School of Law was founded in 1908 as Portia Law School, the first school in the nation dedicated exclusively to the legal education of women, is accredited by the American Bar Association (ABA) and a member school of the AALS. Located in Boston, NESL provides an extensive clinical program as well as concentrated programs in Corporate Law, Environmental Law, Family Law, International Law, and Tax Law. We offer three divisions of study: full-time day, part-time evening, and a special part-time division specifically for parents who have primary child-care responsibilities.
B111	Northwest Christian College	Northwest Christian College offers working adults the opportunity to earn their master's degree at night. Degrees offered include a Master of Business Administration (MBA), a Master of Arts in Counseling, and a Master of Arts in School
B39	Oregon College of Oriental Medicine	The Oregon College of Oriental Medicine (OCOM) provides a comprehensive program leading to a Masters degree in Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (M.Ac.O.M.). The three-year program emphasizes traditional Chinese medicine, acupuncture, Chinese herbology, Qigong, Tuina, and Shiatsu. Federal financial aid and study in China are available. Learn more about OCOM at www.ocom.edu .
B40	Oregon State University College of Business - MBA Program	OSU College of Business MBA Program emphasizes the role of technology in competitive strategy and its impact on organizational management. The program can be completed in three terms (fall, winter and spring) by students with undergraduate degrees or minors in business, and is designed to provide our graduates with the skills they need to successfully compete in the business marketplace.
B41	Pacific University - Graduate Admissions	Graduate school.
B42	Pacific University - School of Education	Graduate School - Teacher Education Program, School Counseling Program
B44	Pepperdine University	Pepperdine University's School of Public Policy takes a fresh, innovative, an student-centered approach to the increasingly important interdisciplinary field of public policy. Pepperdine's program is built on a distinctive philosophy that impacts the study and application of public policy in several important respects: Public policy itself is not limited to the study of government solutions, but is broadened to embrace a full range of community-based and free-market approaches to public policy problems.
B92	Portland State University - MIM Program	Graduate degree in international business. AACSB accredited 1 year full-time, 2 year part-time. Focus on Asia and Pacific Rim.
B45	Saint Louis University Law School	Saint Louis University School of Law's curriculum is designed to carry out the university's mission of academic excellence as well as reflect the school's humanistic approach to teaching. Our areas of excellence are International Law, Employment Law and Health Law.
B46	Samuel Merritt College	Graduate school. On the frontlines of health science education, Samuel Merritt College offers graduate degrees in nursing, physical therapy, occupational therapy, and physician assistant studies.
B55	Santa Clara University	Graduate school
B56	Savannah College of Art and Design	Master of Fine Art, Master of Art, and Master of Architecture Degrees. Majors include; Computer Art, Video/Film, Graphic Design, Illustration, Architecture, Architectural History, Art History, Historic Preservation, Fashion, Fibers, Furniture Design, Interior Design, Media and Performing Arts, Metals and Jewelry, Painting, Photography, Product Design and Sequential Art
B57	Seattle University School of Law	Our location in Seattle combines the best of both worlds for our students - a university community in one of our city's most vibrant neighborhoods and easy access to the region's largest legal community. Focus areas are offered in Business, Tax, Civil Advocacy, Commercial, Criminal, Environmental, Estate Planning, International, Intellectual Property, Labor/Employment, Poverty and Real Estate.
B58	Suffolk University Law School	Graduate school
B91	The Evergreen State College	Graduate School