A&E brief

Dead Poets to play WOW Hall

Hard rock group Dead Poets Society will be performing at psychedelic rock band King Black Acid's CD release party for "The Mothman Prophecies" motion picture soundtrack on Feb. 23 at WOW Hall.

Dead Poets Society is a local electronic-goth act whose performance follows the Jan. 8 release of their second album, "Deprogramming."

In addition to releasing two full-length albums, the group remixed Depeche Mode's "I Feel Loved" tracks and Madonna's "Deeper and Deeper" record.

"It's like we're the 'soundtrack band opening band,'" keyboardist and vocalist Raven Nightshado said, referring to a recent performance with The Dragonflies, who had a song on the "Sugar and Spice" movie soundtrack. "It's really cool. I think it's great that King Black Acid is finally receiving the national attention they deserve. They are a great band with a very unique sound."

KWVA's "Dark Waters" show, which airs Mondays from 9-11 p.m., has recently started spinning the Dead Poets' newest single, "Synners."

WOW Hall's doors open at 9 p.m., and the show begins at 9:30 p.m. Admission is $8 at the door. For more information, call 687-2746.

5 REASONS TO STUDY IN TAMPERE, FINLAND

- In Finland, the world's most protected natural environment thrives as part of a modern EU economy. Nestled between the Nordic countries and Russia, Finland is full of cultural and architectural wonders and is home to some of the most pristine scenery you'll find.
- On the UO program at the University of Tampere, most students spend about the same amount (including airfare) as they would here at the UO. In a direct-exchange program between the UO and the University of Tampere, UO students pay no tuition to Tampere. A UO study abroad fee (currently $400 per term) applies.
- Tampere offers many courses in English. (We hear the Finnish classes are good, too!)
- Students can use their UO financial aid for expenses in Tampere.
- Students earn UO credit for courses completed at Tampere.

Application forms and Tampere program information available at the Office of International Programs, 330 Oregon Hall. Or contact program coordinator Roger Adkins, 346-0518, radkins@uoregon.uoregon.edu.

Hurry! Application deadline is Friday, March 1!
