Departments of English and Anthropology

present

Women and the Nation in the Middle East and the U.S.

with Diane Baxter and Linda Kintz

Wednesday, March 6 4:00-5:30

100 Willamette Hall

In an effort to facilitate education and informed discussion—from a variety of perspectives—on the events of September 11th and their aftermath, the University of Oregon Senate Ad-Hoc Committee charged with coordinating the university's response is sponsoring a series of panel presentations and discussions during Winter term 2002.

Symposia will meet weekly, on Wednesdays from 4:00 to 5:30 P.M., in 100 Willamette Hall. Each week will feature presentations and discussions that draw on the particular perspectives, specializations and expertise of University of Oregon schools, departments and programs, as well as individual faculty engaged in teaching and research on topics that inform our understanding of the September 11th crisis and subsequent developments.

The University Senate Ad-Hoc Committee does not take positions on issues of policy, politics, or ideology. To ensure its neutrality, the Committee will provide clear identification of the specific sponsorship of campus activities by the groups that carry them out. In all cases, the content of remarks and materials relating to these issues are the responsibility of their sponsors, and do not reflect an official position of the Ad-Hoc Committee or the University of Oregon.

All meetings are free of charge and open to the public.
