Eugene digs 'under-ground' band
 New Eugene band Mummified Deer Fetus played its way into the under-ground music scene at a rousing concert Friday night. The band played for an intimate crowd of three people in a 30-foot underground tunnel at the base of Skinner Butte. Last week the band played for an audience of 5 in a 15-foot backyard tunnel, but drummer Flick said, "It just wasn't deep enough for under-ground standards. We had to find someplace deeper." Skinner's Butte was chosen because the soil at its base is soft but unlikely to cave in. The band's 23 members include 3 guitars, 2 alto saxophones, 6 keyboards, 1 ukulele and 3 Moogs. Rounding out the group are 5 triangle players and 3 clappers. Members of the group got their start playing in a variety of punk, hard-core, metal-core, and neo-punk core bands in the robust Oregon towns of Forest Grove, Lebanon, Cave Junction and Roseburg. Members of the group met each other in "the dorms" after moving to Eugene to attend "school." The members knew they wanted to play something extreme, but they didn't know what. That's when they found out about the nascent under-ground scene. "We can't go nearly as deep as the masters," said Pete "the Pig" Smith, one of the triangulists. "We just don't have that kind of power yet." The band's music is specially created to sound really cool reverberating off dirt. "Our music is loud and enveloping with a melodic kick," said Kira Khan, clapper No. 2. Jordan Jones, the ukulele player, said, "It is," in agreement. — Sal Rockette

 Duck crap once abounded on the first floor of the UO bookstore. Student groups at the University are recommending that the store use the vast amount of newly created floor space for an indoor running track, a sweatshop or books.

Duck crap

 "We just felt that pastels were more appropriate for spring," Thompson said. "Basically we were all getting pretty sick and tired of that atrocious green and yellow, and we all voted to change to lighter hues." Thompson said the basic Oregon designs, namely the Nike "O," will remain the same, but printed on different colored fabrics. Assistant manager Tammy Faye said the color change has affected the mood and demeanor of both employees and customers. "Everybody's a lot happier now because they aren't overwhelmed with the yellow and green. It's more like a normal store now, with clothes and accessories in more than two colors," Faye said. The bookstore has also stopped selling the stuffed Oregon ducks, key chains and doorbells that play the University's fight song because it was giving employees a headache. "Thank heavens we got rid of that!" said bookstore cashier Kathy Michaels. "Every time I walked around, somebody would push those wings or key chains that triggered the fight song. I must have heard the song at least 100 times a day." Thompson noted customers will still be able to purchase the offensive Oregon gear at the Gateway Mall, but the bookstore is firm in its resolve to stop selling yellow and green. "We're not even selling those noisy duck lips anymore. It all just got too annoying," Thompson said. The Emerald hopes you enjoyed this April Fools Day story.

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (April 1) - You're interested in budgeting this year, with a specific goal in mind - a special vacation, another credential, or both. Learn a new language through total immersion. Make up your mind about what you want. You can make it happen.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) - Today is an 8 - You should be done planning by now. Check once more to make sure you haven't forgotten anything. OK, time's up! Get going!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) - Today is a 6 - Venus, symbolizing love (and also your ruling planet), is coming into your sign. This brings you luck, especially in love. Schedule a celebration that's appropriate for the occasion.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) - Today is a 7 - Cat got your tongue? You're usually pretty outspoken, but now, a very attractive person may find you charmingly shy. Let him or her do most of the talking. It's cute.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) - Today is a 5 - You try to be nice, but you don't like getting pushed around. You won't get far complaining. Work harder instead.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) - Today is an 8 - Remember to take care of business. Somebody important is watching. You're being reminded because you're apt to forget. You'd much rather be outside playing.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) - Today is a 7 - You'll be getting fidgety soon, eager to try something new. Take a class? Take a trip? Investigate a new lifestyle? Perfect!

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) - Today is an 8 - Stop being a spectator! You have a lot of brilliant ideas to contribute. Do you think that your more assertive friend will come up with better ideas than you will? Fat chance.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) - Today is a 7 - You're still trying to figure out how to get everything you want. It's not easy, but you love a challenge. Ask a housemate to help.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) - Today is a 7 - Do you work to love, or love to work? If it's more like the former than the latter, brace yourself, because you're about to undergo a change. For the next few weeks you may love to work, so hustle!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) - Today is a 6 - Tidy up around your place. You could get the chance to entertain company soon. Not the kind you have to put up with, but the kind you love to be with.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) - Today is an 8 - You have a lot of interesting friends. How about having a few of them over tonight? True, you can't stay up late, but dinner with the gang would sure be fun - and a good way to dissolve tension.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) - Today is a 6 - Worries about love will start to fade as you discover new security. Worries about money dissolve, too, as you take on new responsibility.
