Ems center fielder Ruben Mora uses some power against the Tri-City Dust Devils in Saturday night's game. The Ems finished with a victory late in the seventh inning, 5-1.

sweep by the Dust Devils, who won 4-3, 17-8, 5-4 and 6-2 earlier in the week.

The Emeralds lost their season opener — a game that featured coinciding opening pitches by University coaches Mike Bellotti and Ernie Kent — 4-3 after leaving a man stranded at third base in the bottom of the ninth inning.

On Sunday, the Ems lost their first road game of the season and their series opener against the Boise Hawks 5-1.

The Ems will be in Boise until Friday, when the team will host Everett at 7:05 p.m. in Eugene.

Emeralds spokesman Doug Williams said a trip to Civic Stadium should appeal to students because of its relaxing atmosphere.

On Independence Day, the Ems will host Spokane in what Williams said will be a "huge" day. The fireworks show that will accompany the game should bring in a big crowd, he said. Williams said only 800 general admission tickets for the July 4 game remain.
