 like my viewing experience interrupted, I'll gladly trade that for the extra features. I haven't even touched the other two discs of supplementals or listened to any of the four commentary tracks, but as soon as I can block off a day, I'll get right on that.

I'm the first one to admit that the marketing of this movie in all its facets has been nothing short of genius and this edition is the ultimate ploy to squeeze money out of uber-geeks like me — note the Argonath bookends that I did not buy. But the product is so glorious that I willingly bow to my corporate masters. Now, let's hunt some Ore!
