Men's head coach: Ernie Kent
 Alma Mater: Oregon '77
 Career Record: 195-142
 Year at Oregon: Sixth
 Record at Oregon: 103-62 (49-45 Pac-10)

Ernie Kent, the 2002 Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year and a 2002 Naismith Coach of the Year Finalist, needs just nine victories at the helm of the Ducks to move into fifth-place all-time. The former "Kamikaze Kid" helped lead Oregon to a No. 8 national ranking as a sophomore. He completed his collegiate career averaging 7.1 points and 1.8 rebounds per game. Upon completion of his playing career, Kent became head coach at O'Hara Catholic School in Eugene, then took over as head coach for the al-Khaleej Club in Sayhat, Saudi Arabia. In 1988, he became an assistant coach at Colorado State, eventually moving on to an assistant position at Stanford (1990-91). In 1992, Kent was hired as head coach at St. Mary's, where he led the Gaels to a 90-80 overall record and a berth in the 1997 NCAA Tournament. In 1997, he returned to his alma mater as the 18th head coach in Oregon history. In 2001, he helped lead the USA Basketball Junior National Team to a World Championship as an assistant coach.

Women's head coach: Bev Smith
 Alma Mater: Oregon '82
 Career Record: 28-22
 Year at Oregon: 2nd
 Record at Oregon: 28-22 (12-12 Pac-10)

A 1981 and 1982 All-American while at Oregon, Bev Smith returned to the Ducks as the fifth head coach in program history before the start of the 2001-02 season. Smith immediately led Oregon to a 22-13 record and a WNIT Championship. The Salmon Arm, B.C., native established Oregon records for points scored in a single game (38), season (632) and career (2,063) while with the Ducks. She ranks second all-time in career points behind Alison Lang (2,252 points). From 1978-88, Smith helped lead Team Canada to a fourth-place finish at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles. She returned to the National Team from 1992-96 after a two-year stint as head coach at British Columbia (1988-89). Upon completion of her playing career, Smith took over the reins of the Canadian National Team from 1997-01 where she led the program to a 10th-place finish at the 2000 Sydney Olympics. She is a member of the Oregon Hall of Fame and Canadian Basketball Hall of Fame.
