Ethical Leadership Luncheon

Wednesday, February 5
11:00 am - 12:30 pm • Gerlinger Alumni Lounge
Presented by Cintas Corporation

What should you do when given a task you find unethical? How do you choose a career and lead groups without violating your code of ethics? Come hear about ethical challenges in the business world from Jeff Jones, NW Group Vice-President. He will discuss how to address such challenges and respond to your questions.

Motivating Others

Wednesday, February 12
4:00 pm - 6:00 pm • EMU Metellus Room
Presented by Country Insurance and Financial Services

Operating in a team environment, whether for work or school, presents many challenges. We will discuss how to get everyone on the team to do their part without constant oversight. The second focus will be on encouraging staff, which is particularly apt for officers and leaders of student groups!

Conflict Resolution

Wednesday, February 26
4:00 pm - 6:00 pm • EMU Alsea Room
Presented by Looking Glass Youth & Family Services

On the job disagreements are inevitable, losing your temper is not. Good leaders must be able to resolve such conflicts while maintaining an effective working environment. We will cover the basics of conflict resolution, which are applicable in both your personal and professional life, allowing you to get along with (almost) anyone.

Refreshments are provided at each workshop!
