In the second game, junior pitcher Anissa Meashintubby had a no-hitter through four innings before the Vikings scored two runs on three hits in the top of the fifth.

Meashintubby pitched six full innings and struck out five batters.

Oregon opened scoring in the bottom of the second when Vidlund scored on a single by Petrick. The Ducks added a run in the fourth on a leadoff, solo home run by Vidlund.

After Portland State tied the game in the fifth, both teams put runners in scoring position but couldn't score a run.

Vidlund moved from left field to the pitching circle in the top of the seventh. She held the Vikings hitless in her two innings pitched.

"Andrea had a big time game," Arendsen said. "She had big swings and just as important she threw well."

In the eighth, as per international rule, Hutchison was placed on second base. After Vidlund walked and senior Janell Bergstrom singled to load the bases, senior Lynsey Haij hit the ball hard to Viking first baseman Rose Rutledge. She mishandled the ball, allowing Haij to reach first safely and Hutchison to score the winning run.

The Ducks remain at home this weekend as Washington and UCLA come to town for three games. Oregon faces the No. 3 Huskies on Friday and the No. 2 Bruins on Saturday and Sunday.

and a coast through the home stretch? Could it be a record-breaking final round after sitting fourth or fifth after 54 holes? Or could it be a playoff matchup with one of the so-called contenders listed above?

Some things are for sure. Tiger is the No. 1 player in the world. He is the favorite to win at The Masters and has shot the lowest score in tournament history of 270 when he won in 1997. And when he reaches hole 18 on Sunday, Tiger Woods will walk into history, again.
