

Finally! Home-cookin' on campus!

Review by Mickey Miles & Sherry Telford

If you haven't had a chance to try Flying Dogs Café & Deli we would suggest that you try their food as soon as you can! Why? Because you are missing out! From the moment we arrived, we were treated with great service and served even better food. The café is located at 1249 Alder St. next to Ben & Jerry's. A great location along with good old home cookin' is just what students never used to have. It has finally arrived.

We started our dining experience with a variety of appetizers. While Sherry thoroughly enjoyed the fried dill pickles, I was busy consuming a large quantity of fries. We opted for both types of fries. They included sweet potato and traditional fries. Neither disappointed. I would also recommend trying both with the Cajun spicing. Quite a nice way to top off the fries, I must say.

Next it was on to the main course. Sherry dared to try the Monterey burger. She assured me she would be going back for another soon! The burger was great and came loaded with more fixins' than you could ever ask for. I opted for the breakfast approach. The good old bacon and cheddar omelet was delicious. It was loaded with tons of goodies and served with home fries and toast.

If not for filling up on the wonderful main course, I would have ventured on to the wonderful dessert menu. Ah, if only I had more room. Sherry did try the fresh squeezed lemonade. It was fabulous. Quite possibly the best lemonade in Eugene!

Aside from a great menu filled with scrumptious goodies, Flying Dogs also offers specials Monday through Thursday. Let me assure you that there is not one special that isn't a great value. Another popular attraction is their daily happy hour. Great drink prices mixed with $2.00 jumbo dogs is any college guy's version of heaven. While my experience was great and filled with great food stories, I feel you need to get down to Flying Dogs and experience it for yourself. You won't be disappointed. Heck, you will probably see Sherry and me there. I will be the one with a mouth full of fries and a large diet Pepsi. See ya soon!
