Senate shuffles funds
for student group events

ASUO staff, program representatives and members of the University community packed the EMU Board Room Wednesday night to attend the ASUO Student Senate meeting.

However, for the most part, it was business as usual for the Senate, shuffling money around within line items as well as granting a handful of surplus special requests.

The Muslim Student Association appeared before the senate to request funding transfers so the group can pay for food and advertising for a series of events it is hosting next week. Senators praised the group for putting together a thorough budget and making the most of the money it was allocated through the ASUO Programs Finance Committee process. The Senate voted to transfer $300 from travel, $450 from the speakers line item and $200 from reference to the MSA food account and $400 from reference to advertising.

Representatives from the Black Student Union asked the Senate for money transfers so the group can hold its graduation event. The Senate transferred $400 from black history, $25 from postage, $60 from advertising and $25 from the Malcolm X celebration food holding to the group's food account. The Senate also transferred a $1,248 expense from fundraising to the Black Arts Festival. BSU was required to go through Senate to get this deficit taken care of because the expense was incurred in the previous fiscal year. After brief debate, the Senate voted to honor BSU's request.

Representatives from the Chinese Taiwanese Student Association appealed to the Senate for help in funding the group's main event of the year, China Night. The Senate voted to transfer $100 from reference, $260 from AV set-up and $200 from the speaker account to China Night. It also voted to transfer $1,000 from China Night food holding to the food account, $1,000 from surplus and $991 from surplus to China Night.

The ASUO Executive paid a visit to the Senate to request line item transfers to take care of deficits. The Senate voted to transfer $115 from long distance to postage and $385 from long distance to elections. The ASUO Executive withdrew its surplus special request motion for $3,845.

The Senate voted to give the Kultura Pilipinas $858 from surplus to help the group pay to bring a speaker to campus.

The Senate transferred $500 from the Native American Student Union's spring powwow food holding account to the group's spring powwow food account.

At the end of the evening, $10,143 remained in Senate surplus for future allocation.
