With summer approaching, many people may be moving into a new apartment or house for the first time. For students on a limited budget, this may call for major bargain shopping for essential home furniture. There are several ways to get furniture in Eugene without clearing out the bank account.

"Buying second-hand furniture is a great way to recycle," freshman Simon Battisti said. "When I first got to town, I paid a visit to Goodwill to buy a chair. It was kind of dirty, but I covered it with a blanket, so it was cool. I like the idea of recycling furniture because it seems like it won't take up a lot of room in a landfill."

While furniture in department stores may be as high as $148 for a couch/futon or a dining table, students often can get good deals at yard sales.
