to shouting out practiced words in front of a large crowd. Expression is diverse and manifold.

And thus far, these words seem targeted solely at writers. But what Emerson touches upon in his essay on the poet is — odd and contradictory as it seems — writing poetry does not require a keyboard or pen or typewriter. This is because all humans are drawn to expression, and it's time to once again make expression a priority in our lives. "The people fancy they hate poetry, and they are all poets and mystics," Emerson says. Find poetry in the lowest, the highest and all the gray in between — if you are a preacher, teacher, busboy or barista. "The poorest experience is rich enough for all the purposes of expressing thought," Emerson notes.

Turn this very article into a poem by folding its meaning into all sorts of different shapes.

Fair

Sixpence None the Richer Thursday, Aug. 14. Friday, Aug. 15, features rising country act Rascal Flatts, while Saturday, Aug. 16, brings country chart-toppers Lonestar to the stage. On Sunday, Aug. 17, Pepe & The Bottle Blondes will play a salsa show, followed by retro disco act Hit Explosion.

For the second year in a row the fair will feature a talent competition in the Bi-Mart Activity Zone, with finals to be held on the main stage. The competition is split into two categories: one for those 15 and younger and one for those 16 and older. The top four performers receive a cash prize and the best performer in each category will be sent to the Oregon State Fair in Salem on August 25.

The Extreme Scene venue will host a Battle of the Bands competition and a karaoke competition, as well as two food-related competitions: a Rice Crispy sculpture contest and a watermelon-seed spitting contest

Fair-going means food, and the Lane County Fair certainly delivers. Vendors this year include Ben & Jerry's, Brindiamo Catering, The Great Philly Steak, Mission Mexican Restaurant, Wild Duck Pizza, Jumbo Burrito, Oriental Village and Cordy's Country BBQ.

With a mix of new and classic rides, the fair will not be short on mechanically induced excitement, either. There are 17 rides for adults, including classics like the Zipper and Super Loops, as well as new rides like the Invertor and the Scrambler. For kids there are the Haunted House, the Convoy and the Space Train.

The fair will open every day at 11:00 a.m. Daily admission is $8 for those 16 and older and $6 for those six to 15. Children five and younger get in free. Season passes — good for all six days — are available for $15. Tickets are available at the gate. Reserved-seating concert tickets are available for $12.50 to $16.50 and can be purchased through TicketsWest/Fastixx outlets, or at the Lane Ice Center at the Fairgrounds. Concert tickets do not include fair admission.
