O UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Stretch Your Summer

Check out the September Experience Program

September 2-12, 2003

- Short on group requirements?
- Looking for a unique way to wrap up your summer?
- Want to get ahead in your course of study?
- Excited to get back in the swing of classes?
- Does $500 for 4 credits sound like a deal to you?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, you need to find out more about the September Experience Program. Resident and nonresident students take one course for 4 credits in nine days for just $500. All are group satisfying! Classes meet from 8:00 a.m. to 11:50 a.m. Monday - Friday. We have the courses you want, the courses you need, and the courses you should take. Courses are included in Summer '03 DuckHunt.

north and escaped; Gariepy turned south and was hit by the vehicle. In the report, Redlinger said it was clear to her they were trying to escape.

But Gariepy said he wasn't trying to escape when he was hit, adding that he was about to do a bunny hop with his bicycle to see if he could jump as high as a planter box when he saw the patrol vehicle approaching with its lights flashing. He said he was trying to avoid being hit by the vehicle, not escape.

"I was performing a trick," he said. "It was probably about ten feet away. Then, he comes in and hits me on my side with the front of his (vehicle)."

Gariepy said he didn't remember hearing the command from Redlinger to stop, but in the EPD report it stated that when an EPD officer questioned him about the command, Gariepy said, "Well, I wasn't going to stop."

The report also said Torris later admitted to an EPD officer that he and Gariepy tried to escape.

Neither the officer nor the suspect were under the influence of drugs or alcohol, the report said.

"I was performing a trick...then he comes in and hits me."

As a result of the incident, DPS placed Bonertz on administrative leave until it could complete its investigation — standard practice for collisions involving DPS vehicles. Saylor said she could not yet comment on any of Gariepy's statements because of the ongoing investigation.
