

Republican Party lies, tries to impede justice

I have never witnessed such an abuse of power in my life!

The political agenda of the Republican Party, in attempting to manipulate facts and impede the paths of justice inherent within our democratic institutions, will not succeed!

GUEST COMMENTARY

Within the cover story of a war against terrorism rests one enormous single truth. The Republican Party is caught red-handed and directly responsible in shifting massive amounts of U.S. tax dollars into the private coffers that fund the political agenda of the Republican Party, its financial backers and those who profit from war.

Under cover of war, a successful revolving door of subversion is the entrance to the Bush administration, Iran/Contra style.

"International and Domestic Piracy" is the agenda of neoconservative Republicans now in office.

The neoconservative agents within the Republican Party are known by name. They are the authors of "The Project for a New American Century," they are the presidential cabinet of advisors.

This administration is a threat to the safety and survival of society around the world. The political agenda is war and it would be prudent to view the Republican Party as the political force that has unseated America's honor.

The Republican Party, in attempting to "privatize" their hold on public office and control allocation of U.S. tax dollars for the benefit of the financial backers of the Republican Party, have taken this country into a debacle of destruction.

The results of which continue with the subversion of our democratic institutions and the politicizing of command of our U.S. military in murder, war and mayhem.

This administration will face a grand jury investigation, just like the Iran/Contra investigation of the Reagan/Bush era. Of this there can be no doubt.
