Looking for a Christian community on campus?

Then check out the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry!

The Wesley Foundation is a great place to meet good people, make long-lasting friendships, and grow in your faith. Our campus ministry strives to be an open Christian community where we mutually support each other as we seek to understand what it means to be a faithful Christian on campus, in Eugene, and in this world. We don't have all the answers - and we won't tell you what to think or believe. But through it all, you will find support as you seek to live with integrity the life God is calling you to.

Join us for our Fellowship Night on Wednesdays at 6:30 PM for warm fellowship, meaningful conversation, lively singing, and prayer. We are located at 1236 Kincaid (next door to the UO Bookstore). Plan ahead to join our spring break team to San Francisco where we engage in a week of inner-city community service work!

For more information, check out our web site at www.uowesley.org or call 346-4694 or e-mail the campus pastor, Rev. Jeremy Hajdu-Paulen, at jeremyhp@darkwing.uoregon1.edu.
