Terrence Whitehead has struggled recently and as Oregon's running game goes, so go the Ducks. Whitehead rushed for 40 yards last week against Utah, running into red jerseys seemingly every time he touched the ball. In Oregon's first four games of the season, the Ducks rotated running backs. However, Whitehead has seen the most action lately, and he hasn't run with it. Before the loss to Utah, Whitehead ran for 18 total yards on 10 carries in Oregon's 55-16 loss to Washington State. The Ducks need the sophomore to step up against the Sun Devils. Oregon will establish its passing game — that hasn't been a problem so far — but the Sun Devils will eventually adjust. If Whitehead can't get it going, then running back Chris Vincent will have to take over. However, the freshman hasn't fared much better recently. Against the Cougars, he ran for 17 yards on seven carries. He missed last week with an ankle sprain, so he might not be 100 percent for Saturday's game.
