Halloween parties, concerts to be held at variety of venues

Halloween events in Eugene to include live performances and costume contests at cafés, theaters and eateries

There is no rest for the wicked, but as the heavy schedule of events this Halloween might show, the wicked don't necessarily want to rest. Here is a look at Friday's slate of events for all the costumed heathens.

The Cherry Poppin' Daddies will be performing an all-ages show 9 p.m. at the McDonald Theatre, located at 1010 Willamette St. The local group, which is billing itself as the Scary Poppin' Daddies for this performance, garnered national attention with their platinum-selling swing album "Zoot Suit Riot" in 1997. Openers for the show will be the group Vagiant UK. Tickets are on sale for $13 at TicketWest outlets; doors open at 8 p.m.

Local café and restaurant Luna will be hosting two performances on Halloween night. The first is singer/songwriter Erik Muiderman, who will be performing from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. There is no cover charge for his performance. The second performance planned for the evening is the Deb Cleveland Band, a local soul group. The performance begins at 9:30 p.m. and has a $6 cover charge. Luna is located at 30 E. Broadway. Awards will also be presented for the best, scariest and sexiest costumes.

The Lane County Bill of Rights Defense Committee will be holding a Halloween Bash at the new Cozmic Pizza venue on the corner of West 8th Avenue and Charnelton Street. The event will feature the Middle Eastern dance band Alanar On Fire and Jupiter Hollow. There will also be a costume contest, fortune telling and a "Patriot Act Pinata" at midnight. Ticket prices range from $6 to $10. The Bash begins at 6:30 p.m.

The WOW Hall will also be holding Halloween festivities, with The Sugar Beets and Taarka performing. A haunted house will also be set up for the performance; costumes are encouraged. Doors open at 8 p.m. with The Sugar Beets performing first at 8:30 p.m. Taarka will perform at 11 p.m. and will celebrate the release of their second album. Tickets are $10 in advance and $12 at the door. The WOW Hall is located at 291 W. 8th Ave.

The Fifth Street Public Market is hosting a plethora of events on Friday as part of a benefit for FOOD for Lane County. There will be trick-or-treating for kids at all retail stores, live music and a silent auction on items donated by Market merchants.

Live bands will include the Metal Detectors, Choco Blanco, Hip Pocket, Saltlick, the John Shipe Band and Mood Area 52. The entertainment begins at 4 p.m. and admission is three canned food items.

WHAT TO DO IF YOUR PARTY STARTS TO GET OUT OF CONTROL

1. Call the police yourself if uninvited guests disrupt your party or if your guests won't pay attention to your requests to behave and obey the law. Call before things get too out of control. Police will view your trying to keep things under control as a preventive measure.

2. Respond positively if a police officer comes to your house. The officer is most likely responding to a complaint. Make sure the person interacting with the police officer at the front door is sober and able to be responsive to their requests. Do as much as possible to comply with what the police are asking you to do. Enlist the help of your friends and housemates.

3. Interfering with a police officer makes a bad situation worse. Do not physically resist the officer under any circumstance. Use common sense and cooperate. Don't throw bottles at or near police officers. If you have committed a crime and a police officer asks you to identify yourself, there may be consequences if you refuse. You are encouraged to always tell a police officer your name if asked. Giving a false name is a separate offense and will likely escalate what might have been a citation into a trip to jail.

4. Understand that you can be arrested. A police officer may take someone into custody for any violation of law that carries a potential jail penalty. This includes most state criminal laws and many city ordinances. For some violations, an officer may detain you while verifying your identity and issuing a citation.

5. When a police officer asks you to clear an area, leave right away. If you stay around after the warning to watch what's happening, you may be cited for interfering with a police officer. If police warn that they are going to use tear gas, you need to get as far away as fast as you can.
