

Graduate and Professional Schools

Table	School	School Profile
58	Bastyr University - Graduate Programs	Bastyr University, located north of Seattle, Washington, is one of the world's leading academic centers for advancing knowledge in the natural health sciences. A twenty-five-year pioneer in natural medicine, Bastyr continues to be in the forefront to developing the model for 21st century medicine. Graduate programs include: Naturopathic Medicine (ND), Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (MSAOM, MSA, DAOM), and MS in Nutrition.
60	California Institute of Integral Studies - Graduate Programs	The California Institute of Integral Studies is an institution of higher learning and research that is committed to integrating mind, body, and spirit in service to individuals, communities, and the Earth. With nearly 1,000 students, CIIS is in a small, urban academic community located in San Francisco. It is comprised of the School of Professional Psychology and the School of Consciousness and Transformation School, both of which offers master's and doctoral degrees.
61	Creighton University - School of Pharmacy and Health Professions	We offer doctoral programs in pharmacy, physical therapy, and occupational therapy. Creighton University is a Jesuit Institution located in Omaha, NE. Creighton is ranked No. 2 among midwest comprehensive universities for 2002 by US News and World Report .
96	Des Moines University - College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery	Des Moines University offers degree programs in medicine and the health sciences - nothing else. The campus community embraces a common mission and vision: to prepare exemplary caregivers and leaders in medicine, healthcare and health services management.
69	Eastern Washington University - Physical Therapy Program	Eastern Washington University's curriculum leading to the Doctorate in Physical Therapy emphasizes clinical reasoning and evidence-based decision making. Graduates are prepared to sit for licensure in any state and practice in all settings. Graduates have a pass rate for licensure of 98% for first time testers, and because of our low tuition rates, Eastern's program is a great value!
70	George Fox University - Graduate Admissions	George Fox University will have representatives available to discuss our Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) program and graduate counseling programs. Counseling programs now include Marriage and Family Therapy, School Counseling, School Psychology and more. Ask about our new Salem site!
71	Golden Gate University - School of Law	Golden Gate University School of Law offers a JD program which students may participate in on a full or part-time basis. GGU also offers joint degree programs such as the JD/MBA program, which can be completed in 3 years and the JD/PHD program, in conjunction with the Pacific Graduate School of Graduate Psychology in Palo Alto, CA.
72	Gonzaga University - School of Law	Gonzaga University School of Law belongs to a long and distinguished tradition of humanistic, Catholic, and Jesuit education. It is an integral part of Gonzaga University, which was founded in 1887 and continues to maintain the tradition of academic excellence in education that is at the heart of the mission of the 450-year-old Jesuit order. The School of Law, which has approximately 550 students, was established in 1912. The campus is located in Spokane, a four-season city with the Spokane River flowing through its center. The city of 200,000 serves as the regional hub of the Inland Northwest.
73	Lane Community College - Aviation Science	Aviation Science Program prepares participants for technical careers in the Air Transportation Industry. Candidates may train for and qualify for all (FAA) Federal Aviation Administration Certificate and licenses to fly as a professional flight crew
74	Lewis and Clark College - Northwestern School of Law	Lewis & Clark Law School offers both a solid theoretical foundation and hands-on practical experience. We offer a general legal curriculum as well as comprehensive specialty programs in several areas. Our part-time program also gives students great flexibility in scheduling. The academics are rigorous, the atmosphere is casual, professors are accessible, and the campus is one of the most unique and beautiful in the nation!
75	Monterey Institute of International Studies	The Monterey Institute of International Studies offers masters degrees in international policy studies, international environmental policy, international trade policy, MPA in nonprofit management, international MBA, TESOL, TFL, translation and interpretation. Specializations and certificates also available in nonproliferation studies, computer assisted language learning and language policy administration. Over one-third of students are internationals from over 60 countries and all students speak more than one language.
76	National College of Naturopathic Medicine	NCNM offers two graduate professional degrees in accredited and recognized programs that prepare you for licensed practice in many states and provinces. Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine, a four-year program of clinical sciences and holistic methods of healing and disease prevention. Master of Science in Oriental Medicine, a four-year program that delves deeply into thousands of years of classical Chinese methods of diagnosis and healing.
78	Oregon College of Oriental Medicine	The Oregon College of Oriental Medicine (OCOM) offers a master's degree program in acupuncture and Oriental medicine (M.Ac.O.M.). The three-calendar-year program includes the study of acupuncture, Chinese herbology, Oriental therapeutic massage, and qi cultivation. Federal financial aid is available for our accredited program. Located in SE Portland, OCOM has been hailed as one of the best acupuncture schools in the country by TCMStudent.com and by TCM World magazine.
97	Oregon Health & Science University - Biomedical Informatics	The major goal of the program is to educate future developers, managers, and researchers of health and biomedical information systems. Individuals with a variety of backgrounds are provided a strong technical grounding in medical informatics, health and medicine, computer science and research methods so that they may assume positions that require a thorough understanding of both information technology and the health care environment.
59	Oregon Health & Science University - Physician Assistant Program	The OHSU Physician Assistant Program is a 26-month, full-time course of study leading to a Master of Physician Assistant Studies degree. Physician Assistants are highly trained members of the health care team who practice medicine with the supervision of licensed physicians providing patients with a wide range of services including: medical histories, physical examinations, surgical procedures, diagnose illnesses, order and interpret diagnostic tests, suture wounds, set fractures, etc.
98	OHSU - OGI School of Science & Engineering	OGI provides graduate level education in the following programs: Biomedical Engineering, Environmental Science & Engineering, Computer Science & Engineering, Computational Finance, Electrical and Computer Engineering, Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, Management in Science and Technology, and a certification in Health Care Management.
62	Pacific University - Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Physician Assistant, and Optometry	Pacific University is an independent, comprehensive university recognized nationally for its exemplary programs. Pacific offers master's degrees in occupational therapy, physician assistant studies, counseling psychology, and education, doctorate degrees in optometry, physical therapy, and clinical psychology.
63	Pacific University - College of Education	Pacific University's well-respected teacher education and school counseling programs provide the knowledge and skills future educators need in a "hands on" environment with small classes and plenty of personal attention. Affordable financial aid packages, including scholarships, are available. Classes begin in January on our Eugene campus.
77	Pepperdine University - School of Public Policy	Pepperdine University's School of Public Policy takes a fresh, innovative, and student-centered approach to the increasingly important interdisciplinary field of public policy. Pepperdine's program is built on a distinctive philosophy that impacts the study and application of public policy in several important respects: Public policy itself is not limited to the study of government solutions, but is broadened to embrace a full range of community-based and free-market approaches to public policy problems.
79	Portland State University - MIM Program	The PSU Master of International Management (MIM) graduate degree is designed for people who want to do business in Asia. Business undergraduate degree not required. AACSB accredited 1 year full-time, 2 year part-time.
80	Regent University - School of Law	Regent University School of Law is a place that is serious about the study of law, and the molding of future attorneys. We are creating a different kind of lawyer. Our graduates serve in strategic positions across the country and engage the culture for the cause of justice through a message of faith.
81	San Francisco Theological Seminary	San Francisco Theological Seminary is a graduate community devoted to the best preparation of whole leaders for the whole church. Our integrated curriculum provides academic, spiritual and practical theological education and ministry preparation for persons pursuing the MDiv, MATS, and MA degrees. We also offer a Diploma in Spiritual Direction and/or Formation. Situated in beautiful Marin County, we are part of the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, where our students also take classes.