

"As inconceivable as it might sound, it is possible to never experience anger."

Dean Van Leuven

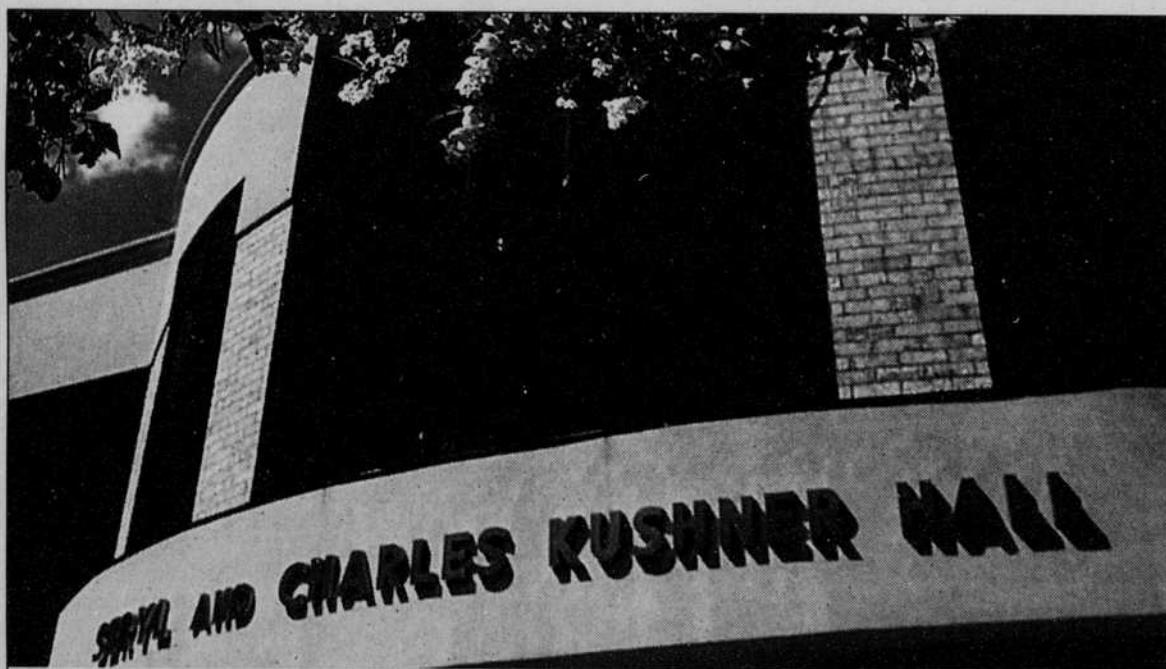

UO '55, UO Law '69

Discussion and Booksigning

"Life Without Anger: Your guide to Peaceful Living."

Thursday, November 13 • 7 p.m. • FREE • UO Bookstore

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
BOOKSTORE
UOBOOKSTORE.COM

HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

invites you to join us at the
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
Friday, November 14, 2003, 2 p.m.
Erb Memorial Union, Umpqua Room

Learn about law school and the opportunities available at Hofstra University School of Law.

For details, please call
Jack Bennett, Pre-Law Advisor, at (541) 346-3211.

HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW

Hempstead, New York 11549 • www.hofstra.edu/law

We've got sports

24/7

at www.dailyemerald.com

ULTIMATE

continued from page 5

"In the fall we try to stress team fundamentals," Brown said. "We try to encourage people to work on their individual skills outside of practice so we can focus more on improving as a team, rather than as individuals."

Brown said Oregon's toughest competitors will be California, Stanford, UC Davis and UC Santa Cruz. The real test for Oregon will be in the spring. The fall tournament — much like Oregon's Fall Ultimate Kickoff for ultimate Frisbee — is mainly geared toward rookies to test their skills and is viewed as the pre-season for spring competitions.

Even though Oregon failed to place in the top five, Brown said the tournament was a success for the Oregon teams.

A Successful Road Trip

The women's Club soccer team hit the road this past weekend in search of its first victory.

The team did not have to travel far as they recorded their first win of the season against Oregon State. Oregon led, 1-0, at halftime and dominated the Beavers in the second half. Cassie Pruett and Tracy Vanderzanden each had a goal and an assist.

"We really came together as a team against OSU, which is very impressive considering we have only practiced with each other for about a month," Vanderzanden said.

The Ducks then beat Lewis and Clark, an NCAA Division III school, by a score of 2-0 after losing to the Pioneers, 3-2, two weeks ago.

"I think we all remembered losing to them a couple of weeks ago, and so this time it was nice to come back and put two goals away in the second half for the win," soccer coordinator Angel Anguiano said.

The Ducks ended their weekend in a 0-0 tie against California. Goalkeepers Alexis Bittar and Sarah Kenney combined for three shutout games, marking the first time Oregon has played an out-of-state opponent in five years.

Kirsten McEwen is a freelance reporter for the Emerald.

FOOTBALL

continued from page 5

hand while falling to the ground.

"It went off the defender's hands," Weatherspoon said, "and all of a sudden it popped out of my vision. And I went to get it and I caught it. It was weird, but I caught it."

The catch was Weatherspoon's only of the game, but it couldn't have come at a better time for the Ducks.

Second coming

The situation the Ducks found themselves in Saturday was strikingly similar to a game against Arizona State on Oct. 30, 1999, at Autzen Stadium.

Clemens led Oregon to 14 fourth-quarter points, which included an option sweep by running back Terrence Whitehead for a 1-yard run with 47 seconds left Saturday.

The comeback mirrored Oregon's triumph four seasons ago. Joey Harrington, then a sophomore in 1999, found Marshaun Tucker with a 29-yard touchdown strike with nine seconds left to lead Oregon to a 20-17 win over the Sun Devils.

Bellotti hopes the comeback gives Clemens the same kind of confidence boost that Harrington's did.

"I think that not just for Kellen, but for the entire football team (confidence will build)," Bellotti said. "I think that those things build upon each other."

"It's interesting because he started the game so very poorly. Jason Fife came in and played extremely well early. When Jason slipped a little bit, Kellen came in and played arguably the best football of his career in a very important role."

Contact the sports editor at hankhager@dailyemerald.com.

THE MUSLIM STUDENTS ASSOCIATION
PRESENTS

RAMADAN

Come and celebrate with us!!
Break Fast with the Muslim Students Association

Learn about Ramadan
and its importance to Muslims

Wednesday, November 12th
EMU Fir Room, 4:30pm

- The event will be catered by UO catering.
- Please bring warm clothes to support our Clothes Drive for needy families.

For more information, please contact the Muslim Students Association at asuomsa@gladstone.uoregon.edu

