

Winter Term

Get on the "A" List !

Explore the many courses in the School of Architecture & Allied Arts that you might choose from to satisfy your Gen Ed or elective needs.

Art

ART 101: Understanding Contemporary Media
Examines contemporary developments in Fibers, Photography and Ceramics.

ART 115: Basic Design: Fundamentals(4)

Development of visual vocabularies.

ARTD 251: Multimedia Design Tools I (4R)

Introduction to design and communication issues

ARTD 252: Multimedia Design Tools II(4R)

Uses multimedia technology, tools, hardware, software, and the World Wide Web

Arts & Administration

AAD 251: Arts & Visual Literacy (4)

How different modes of learning interact with designed visual information within socio-cultural contexts.

AAD 252: Art & Gender (4)

Socio-cultural factors influencing roles of women and men in arts disciplines.

Art History

ARH 205: History of Western Art II, The Middle Ages

Medieval works of painting, sculpture and architecture

ARH 208: History of Chinese Art

Visual arts of China

Planning, Public Policy & Management

PPPM 201: Intro to Planning, Public Policy & Management

Public leadership, policy analysis, the future of cities

PPPM 443: Natural Resources Policy

Population trends, policy responses, resource availability

SCHOOL OF
ARCHITECTURE
AND
ALLIED ARTS

University of Oregon

For more information on A&AA go to:
aaa.uoregon.edu

SPORTS BRIEF

Oregon Player of the Year signs with Ducks

Softball standout Alicia Cook, a senior at Elmira High School, signed a National Letter of Intent to play at Oregon, softball head coach Kathy Arendsen announced Monday.

"Alicia is probably regarded as the most impressive pitcher in the state of Oregon," Arendsen said. "Our goal has always been to keep the best kids at home and this is a huge step in that direction."

Cook led Elmira with a .506 batting average and a 0.13 earned run average during her junior year in 2003. She was named the state's player of the year by The Register-Guard after throwing 264 strikeouts and 20 shutouts in the season.

Cook's sister, Jennifer Cook, pitched for Oregon from 1996-1999.

"(Alicia Cook) is probably the first player we've brought in that is a multi-position player," Arendsen said. "She can hit, she can play first base and she'll obviously pitch. She has incredible poise and unflappable confidence."

The Ducks finished one win away from the Women's College World Series in May, finishing third in the Pacific-10 Conference in Arendsen's first year.

—Mindi Rice

OSU

continued from page 5

Oregon State into a battle for the Holiday Bowl. That committee could select whichever team it likes, although Washington State may be its choice because of the Cougars' 36-30 win earlier this season.

If the Beavers lose to the Ducks and Trojans and UCLA loses to USC on Saturday, Oregon State and UCLA will tie. Each will be destined for either the Insight Bowl or Las Vegas Bowl. Finally, if Oregon State loses its last two games, UCLA defeats USC and California beats Stanford, then the Beavers would land in sixth and most likely the Silicon Valley Football Classic.

Makes the last part of the season seem interesting, huh?

Bleeding orange and black

The parting shots between the Ducks and Beavers have already been started.

No, Keith Lewis hasn't said anything. Oregon head coach Mike Bellotti has silenced the senior free safety from talking to the media for the rest of the season.

This time, the words came from Corvallis.

Oregon State linebacker Richard Seigler has been in the Civil War since joining the Beaver program in 1999 out of Chaparral High School in Las Vegas. He had a little fun with the game, giving everyone his feelings on Tuesday.

"We're expanding Reser Stadium and we are going to have some extra seats, so the gates for all the Duck fans to come on over to Beaver nation are open," he said. "We're adding seats, so if Duck fans want to make the transition to Beaver nation, our arms are wide open. That's all I'm going to say."

Oregon State head coach Mike Riley will be in his first Civil War since rejoining Oregon State prior to the start of this season. In his two previous games on the sideline, he lost, 48-30, in 1997, but came back with a 44-41 overtime win the next year.

"I think that pretty much was a landmark game in that regard," Riley said in reference to the win propelling the Beaver program. "We played a very good Oregon team in a really good football game by both teams, and to win it under pressure of overtime was a big, big thing for sure."

Contact the sports editor
at hankhager@dailyemerald.com.

VOLLEYBALL

continued from page 5

same mistakes."

Winning mentality

Ferreira has been patient as the season has progressed, choosing to focus on how Oregon has improved rather than dwell on its record. He wanted to reiterate, however, how important winning is to him as a coach and former player. While Ferreira understands it will take time to win with such a young team in the Pac-10, he never enters a match looking for moral victories.

"Winning is very, very important," Ferreira said. "I'm never going into a match for brownie points. I coach to win every single match. There's a lot of valuable lessons that you can learn from athletics, but first and foremost we're going to try and compete because you can't work on winning by (just) talking about winning."

In his 10th season as a head coach, Ferreira has a record of 181-139, including a 100-13 record in three seasons at Cal State Bakersfield and a 48-43 record in three seasons at Idaho.

Contact the sports reporter at jonroetman@dailyemerald.com.

Is Now Hiring For Winter Break!

Driver Helpers

$100 BONUS

for perfect attendance & availability

On Call W/ 3-6 Hr. Shifts
Must Be 18 & Able To Lift 70 Lbs.
Must Meet Appearance Standards
Must Be Available Thru Dec. 24
$7 Per Hour

Interviews Held On Campus:

TODAY

Place: EMU
Time: 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Positions Available Throughout Oregon!