the beginning."

Grzyb contributed five points and four assists in 30 minutes on the court. Duger scored a career-high seven points in just four minutes of playing time.

"It was sad to play my last home game, but the season is not over yet," Grzyb said. "I was proud of Jessica Duger. She looked like she was having a lot of fun, and she made her shots while she was doing it."

The Ducks host Stanford on Thursday with a 7 p.m. tipoff.

Oregon's final home game of the season starts Saturday at 1 p.m. against California. It is the final game at McArthur Court in senior Kayla Steen's Oregon career.

for our team."

Without knowing it was their final game of the weekend, the Ducks closed the tournament with a 3-0 victory against Sacramento State. Third baseman Ashley Richards hit her third home run of the season, a three-run shot in the bottom of the fifth, scoring Poore and shortstop Breanne Sabol.

Meashintubby improved her record to 3-1 with a 5-and-a-third-inning outing. She struck out a career-high nine batters.

"What a tremendous outing by pitcher Anissa Meashintubby and our defense," Arendsen said. "And, offensively, we were able to come through when we needed to."

Oregon finished the tournament 3-0. Long Beach State was also 3-0 and Cal State Northridge, who the Ducks beat in the previous weekend's Fiesta Bowl Tournament, finished 4-0.

The Ducks travel to Texas for the Texas A&M "Aggie III" Tournament for five games beginning Friday. Oregon plays two games against both Penn State and Southern Mississippi and one game against Texas A&M. The Ducks lost to the Aggies one week ago.
