trying to get my head into it. (But) I'm glad I got the points for the team."

Senior Abby Andrus, who was a part of the 4x400 relay team, competed in three other events and earned second-place honors in the 100-meter hurdles and long jump. Her jump of 18 feet 11 1/4 inches set a new personal best, half an inch over her previous best from two years ago.

"The goal of the team was to win and so we were just trying to place as well as we could," said Andrus, who also took third in the high jump at 5-5. "I was overall very satisfied."

DEFENSE

Offensively, the Ducks looked relatively rusty. They were without starting running back Terrence Whitehead, his immediate backup Kenny Washington and starting wide receiver Demetrius Williams, who was held out of the workout because of a concussion he suffered on Tuesday.

"I think overall we were not that good," quarterback Johnny DuRocher said. "We really didn't have any big plays. We had some big runs, but we didn't really make any big plays passing. It was just all right. We kind of had some penalties and turned the ball over a little bit."

Chris Vincent, for one, took advantage of Whitehead and Washington's absences. He ran for 51 yards on eight carries. Ryan Shaw, effectively the backup for the scrimmage, ran five times for 29 yards. But it was his last run of the afternoon that was Shaw's most impressive.

Getting the hand-off from DuRocher, Shaw looked as though he would be tangled up and brought down behind the line of scrimmage. However, he bounced off three defenders and ran around the left side of the line where he went untouched for a 17-yard touchdown.

Kellen Clemens saw little action behind center, completing two passes for 26 yards. DuRocher, who shared time with Clemens running the No. 1 offense, threw for 39 yards on 5 of 8 passing, including a touchdown strike to Dan Kause.

Dixon finished 2 of 4 for 17 yards and ran for 13 on three attempts. Brady Leaf and Adam Hazel completed Oregon's day behind center by going 1 of 4 and 3 for 3, respectively.

"Johnny is a lot more confident with the offense and operates it very well," Bellotti said. "Certainly Dennis Dixon has some (good) moments of things, but he also had a couple of fumbles. It's going to be an interesting competition between those quarterbacks."
