NEWS BRIEF

Siavii trial postponed

Former Oregon football player Junior Siavii's trial, originally scheduled for today, has been postponed to an undetermined date.

The defensive tackle from American Samoa was arrested Jan. 9 for allegedly assaulting former Lane Community College student Jennifer Hegstrom, 23, at Taylor's Bar & Grill, located at 894 E. 13th Ave.

According to a Eugene Municipal Court representative, Siavii's lawyer requested the trial be postponed. The judge assigned to the case is in the process of choosing a new date.

Seats 10, 12 and 14 — which represent journalism/education, architecture and allied arts, and social science — were affected by the error. The elections board has nullified all votes cast for these seats and will move the candidates to the general election. If needed, an additional election will be held April 21 through April 23 for the five Seat 14 candidates.

In the primary election, the Progressive Students Starting Today bloc clinched seven wins in the primary and sent two candidates to the general election. PSST had 13 candidates on the primary ballot.

"I'd say it was mostly the hope that we'd do really well, because we did put a lot of work into it," said Toby Hill-Meyer, a member of PSST who won a seat on the EMU Board of Directors. "Based on all of that work, we all hoped it'd payoff and we'd win, and for the most part we have."

Elections Publicity Coordinator Nathan Strauss said voter turnout for the general election, which begins Friday at 9 a.m. and ends Monday at 5 p.m., tends to be lower because many students don't realize there is a second election, and because there are fewer candidates and less campaigning.

"This is really just the beginning," Strauss said. "The next round is when everything is decided. It's important, if not more important, for students to get out and vote on DuckWeb again."
