Brandon Holliday earned the Pacific-10 Conference's top time in the 400 hurdles (51.08) this year. He claimed that mark at the Oregon Twilight, the Ducks' final home meet.

meet at Oregon, as she plans to return to her home of Denmark after the year.

Afterward, she said she was happy with her performance but hopes to give a better effort at the conference championships.

"I was pretty pleased about it," Abildtrup said of her time. "I felt really good at the beginning of the week, but I was really tired today. I think I could go quite a bit faster at Pac-10's."

Other running wins included the 800-meters, in which sophomore Sara Schaaf improved her personal best by two seconds, at 2:08.08, to earn a Pac-10 qualifier. Red-shirt junior Taylor Bryant took third place in the 1,500 with a time of 4:40:48.

The women's success did not end on the track; it also carried over onto the field.

Bree Fuqua, a junior transfer from Wisconsin, placed first in the shot put with another Pac-10 qualifying mark of 52 feet, 5 1/4 inches. The throw improved her personal best by 1-1 3/4. Fuqua also moved up to second on Oregon's all-time list in the shot put right behind Quenna Beasley's mark of 53-1 1/2, achieved almost 21 years ago.

Fuqua said she felt prepared coming in after working with throwing coach Lance Deal.

"I had a good practice the whole week,"

Fuqua said. "I was hoping for a little farther but it's probably better to hold off and wait a few weeks for it." On the pole vault, freshman Emily Enders and senior Kirsten Larwin each took second place when they cleared 12-10 1/4. They finished behind former Duck and NCAA champion Becky Holliday, who vaulted over 14-1 1/4.

Enders, a Snohomish, Wash. native, also achieved a new personal best when she cleared the height on her third attempt. She said she was so excited after clearing the bar that she screamed with joy.

"I'm a little embarrassed by that," Enders said. "But it was great with the crowd behind you, it just makes everything that much better. Once I got on the runway I felt focused."

In the hammer throw, sophomore Megan Kriz vaulted up to second all-time in Oregon history, smashing her personal best by 11 inches with a throw of 185 feet. Senior Jill Hoxmeier moved into 10th on the all-time list with her mark of 163 feet.

Hoxmeier, whose last meet at Hayward Field was Saturday, said she will always remember the camaraderie of being around the women day in and day out.

"I'm going to miss my teammates more than anything," Hoxmeier said. "They make coming to practice just so much easier. They're just my best friends."

(championships) and get going," Oregon head coach Martin Smith said. "We're kind of right in that state of flux. We've had several big meets and some of the kids went back to their last training cycle and that may have left them a little short tonight. So what we got we pretty much expected."

Along with Holliday's win, sophomore Eric Mitchum dusted his competition in the 110 hurdles with a wind-aided mark of 13.76 (w:2.6). The Calumet City, Ill. native broke the school record two weeks ago at the Mt. SAC Relays with a blazing time of 13.53.

A pair of sprinters also captured wins for Oregon, with freshman Ryan Gilliam coming out on top in the 100-meter dash (10.70) and junior transfer Kedar Inico winning the 400 (46.92).

Gilliam's time was his second-fastest collegiate effort and came just hours after competing as a defensive back in Oregon's spring football game.

"Before the race I was a little concerned," Gilliam said. "But seeing the crowd — a great turnout — here in Tracktown, USA, and being a great, beautiful day, that gave me all the energy I needed."

In the field, freshman Brandon Tower captured his first event win at Hayward Field with a mark of 166 feet, 6 inches in the discus. The mark was a 10-foot personal best for the Beaverton native, who also competed in the hammer throw (eighth, 151-05).

Senior Adam Jenkins won the javelin with a mark of 205-3. Despite entering the meet fatigued, Jenkins finished six inches better than former Duck and NCAA champion John Stiegeler (second, 204-9).

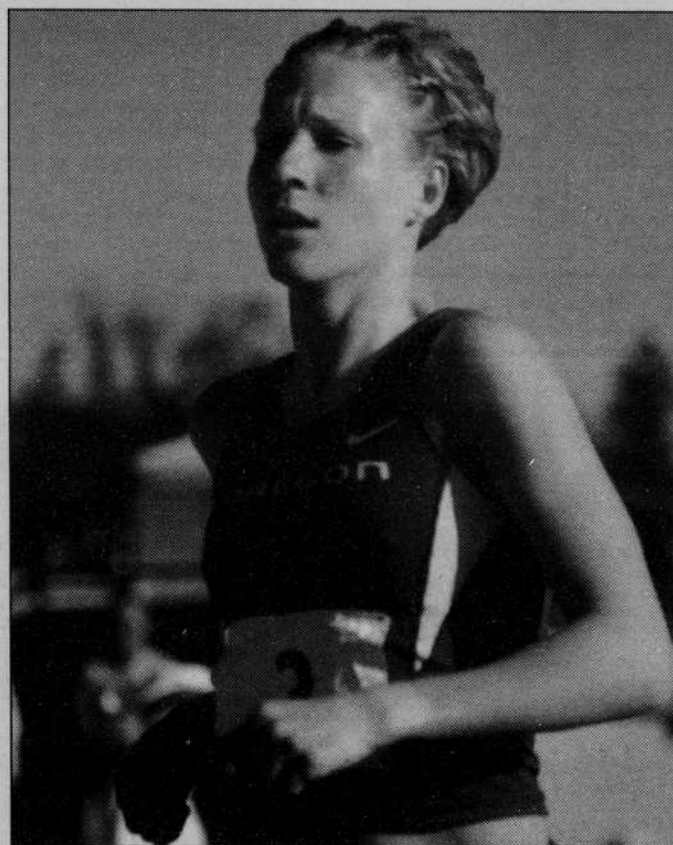

Oregon had four competitors in the pole vault, with freshman Tommy Skipper setting a new outdoor season best (second, 17-9 1/4). Senior Trevor Woods (third, 17-1 1/2) and redshirt freshman David Moore (fourth, 16-5 1/2) set new season bests, while sophomore Jon Derby placed fifth (15-11 3/4).

Redshirt senior Ryan Andrus wrapped up the meet with an eighth-place finish (4:13.25) in the Bill McChesney Jr. Memorial Twilight Mile.

The meet concluded the regular season for the Ducks, who will now focus entirely on the Pac-10s. Decathletes will compete this weekend in Tucson, Ariz., while the rest of the events will be held the following weekend.

The Oregon Twilight also marked the last time Holliday, Woods, Jenkins and Andrus would compete at Hayward Field as Ducks.
