coast blend of comfort foods. [Students] are away from home, but they can have homemade macaroni and cheese," owner Suzanne Smith said.

The menu includes many breakfast combinations, including the World Class Omelets, which are three eggs with a variety of cheeses, meats or veggies, home fries and toast for about an average of $5.95. One of the most popular menu items is the Jumbo Flying Dog, which is $3.25 and comes with a variety of toppings. The average meal is about $6 to $7.

The comfy atmosphere offers a good place to study in the early morning and mid-afternoon. Flying Dogs is open daily until 9 p.m., and take-out is available.

For those looking for a more boisterous environment for lunch and dinner, Pegasus Pizza offers unique pizza and calzone specials.

Geoff Hartwig, employee of Pegasus, said the most popular menu items are the Pegasus barbecue chicken pizza and the California Chicken Club, which is made with white garlic sauce, chicken and bacon. Hartwig also recommends the calzones, which can be created to satisfy individual preferences. The calzones are $7.50 to $7.95 and are suggested for people with big appetites.

The 8-inch two-topping mini pizza is a popular lunch special offered Tuesday through Friday until 3 p.m. The mini pizza is $4.95 and takes only a few minutes to make, which is great for students on a lunch break between classes. There are a couple of new menu items, including the Pizzagna-Lasagna pizza, which is layered with sauce and ricotta and mozzarella cheeses, sausage, mushrooms and olives.

With three televisions upstairs and four downstairs in the bar, Pegasus is a great place to hang out Friday and Saturday nights and is a popular location for watching football games in the fall.

Pegasus opens at 4 p.m. Monday, at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday through Friday, and at 12 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

For those with a taste for international cuisine, Sakura Japanese restaurant has a down-to-earth atmosphere with a unique style for everyone.

Manager Tak Kishino said Sakura is a non-traditional Japanese restaurant.

"[Sakura] is a universal melting pot," where people from all cultures can enjoy the environment and food, he said.

Sakura's most popular menu items include yakisoba noodles and ramen. Menu items average $5 to $7. Also, the box lunches are a choice for many, which come with generous portion sizes and include chicken teriyaki or other meats and vegetables, rice, miso soup and California rolls. Most box lunches are $6.95.

Sakura has an array of sushi specials, including the sushi sampler, which is a 3-piece combo with tuna, salmon and snapper. The sampler is $4.50, and the majority of the other sushi combos are between $3 and $4.95.

During the school year, Sakura is open Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Friday 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Saturday 12 p.m. to 10 p.m.
