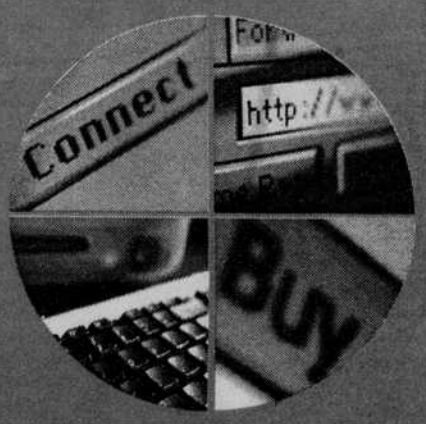
Comcast High-Speed Internet Sale ends soon!



Act Fast!
Offer ends October 14th.

Get 50x's the speed for 50% off! That's less than $24/month for 5 months with home networking included!*

Add to Cart
Call Today!
1.866.879.2884

comcast

*Offer expires 10/14/04. Restrictions apply. Not available in all areas, with any other discount, to current customers or to business customers. Speed comparison compares Comcast's 3000Kbps downstream speed to dial-up speed of 56Kbps. Actual speeds vary and are not guaranteed. $24 price listed includes $10/month multi-product discount available to customers with cable TV. Customers that do not subscribe to cable TV will be billed 50% off the full price of $57.95/month or $28.98/month for 5 months. Promotional offer includes modem/router lease. Home Networking wireless connectivity is not guaranteed. Distance, other wireless frequencies and some home construction may hinder reception. Home Networking install fee does not include cable cards which are required to network each wireless PC. After promotional period, equipment lease fees will be $3/month for a modem, $5/month for a modem/router. Prices shown do not include taxes and fees. Other restrictions may apply. For details, call 1.866.879.2884. Service is subject to terms and conditions of Comcast High-Speed Subscriber Agreement. © 2004 Comcast. All rights reserved.

Erik R. Bishoff | Photographer
University President Dave Frohnmayer participates in a campus voter-registration rally Thursday afternoon in the EMU Amphitheater.

Message at EMU rally: Vote, but turnout puzzles listeners

Bill Bradbury and Dave Frohnmayer encourage students to take voting as a civic responsibility

By Meghann M. Cuniff
News Reporter

Secretary of StateBill Bradbury urged students Thursday to "engage in their civic responsibility" by voting in the November elections.

Speaking to a crowd of about 100 students and members of the community at a voter rally in the EMU amphitheater, Bradburystressed the need for student involvement in the political process if issues such as funding and tuition are to be given the attention they deserve.

"You can make a difference, a huge difference, but you do have to vote," Bradbury said, citing his experiences as a student during the Vietnam War as a prime example of how student voters can make change a reality.

"I voted then because protests weren't working, and I wanted change," he said. "And guess what? We got change."

University President Dave Frohnmayer also spoke at the rally, commending students for what he

BRADBURY, page 16A

EVERYONE COULD USE A LITTLE FINANCIAL AID.

Campbell's CHUNKY
IT FILLS YOU UP RIGHT.™