Surprising twist sends Cal far south to Holiday Bowl

The Golden Bears' hopes of a Rose Bowl invite were dismissed Sunday

BY STEPHEN MILLER
SPORTS REPORTER

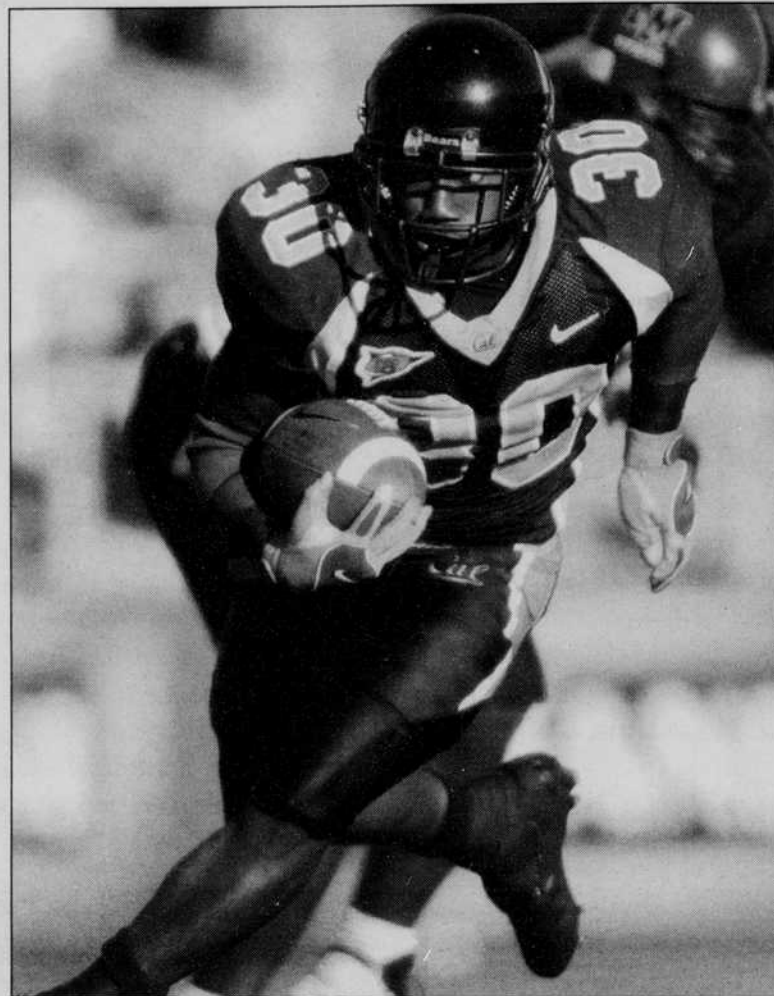

California will travel farther south than it anticipated to knock helmets with Texas Tech at the 26th Annual Holiday Bowl in San Diego Dec. 30 at 5 p.m.

The Golden Bears were originally slated to be in the Rose Bowl this year, but a last-minute decision by the BCS awarded No. 6 Texas a bid to join No. 13 Michigan in Pasadena, Calif.

Neither No. 4 Cal nor No. 23 Texas Tech have ever appeared in San Diego; in fact, this is the first matchup between these two schools. The Golden Bears walk in with two unfavorable records against them: Their program is 6-7-1 all-time in bowl games, and Pacific-10 Conference teams own only a 3-6 record in the Holiday Bowl. The Big-12 Conference has fared well in the Holiday Bowl at 7-4. Texas Tech is 7-19-1 in bowl game appearances with its last being a win against Navy at the Houston Bowl in 2003.

Cal (10-1 overall, 7-1 Pac-10) overpowered Virginia Tech last season in a 54-49 Insight Bowl shootout, and with a postseason bid this year, it is participating in a bowl game for the second straight season under the command of third-year head coach Jeff Tedford.

"It is an honor for us to be playing in the Holiday Bowl this year," Tedford, the 2004 Pac-10 Coach of the Year, said. "We know it's a bowl with great tradition, and we look forward to playing an outstanding Texas Tech team. To spend a week in San Diego
