Now in its 13th year, Game Day is published every Friday throughout the football season and is distributed on campus, at distribution sites around Eugene and at Autzen Stadium the day of the home games. Game Day is published by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co. Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, OR. The Emerald operates independently of the UO with offices in Suite 300 of the Erb Memorial Union.

Improve your credit with your Student I.D.

If you're like most college students, you get a dozen or more credit card offers every week. Here's the bad news: That won't end. But you can send those solicitations right to the shredder by applying for a First Tech Credit Union Student Visa.

With a First Tech Student Visa you can build credit and learn how to effectively use credit to your advantage. Like using your Student Visa as your very own payday loan option. If money is tight near the end of the month, use the card to pay for an unexpected bill. Then, pay yourself back when the first of the month rolls around. That way you avoid outrageous fees charged at those payday lending shops. And you've built more credit history.

QUOTE BOARD

"If you had talked about us sitting here at 5-6 at the beginning of the season ... no offense, but I would have called you a liar."

On the Ducks' surprising under-achievement

ERIK R. BISHOFF | PHOTOGRAPHER

Oregon quarterback Kellen Clemens admitted on several occasions during the season that the Ducks were underachieving. Oregon needed one win in its final three games to be bowl eligible, but failed get it done.
