Washington junior guard Nate Robinson had 14 points and four assists in the Huskies' 77-56 victory over the Ducks on Thursday in Seattle.

Men: Brooks suffers off night never much of a factor. Brooks was forced to the bench with 3:55 remaining in the first half after picking up his third foul. The sophomore eventually fouled out of the game with 8:55 remaining in the second half, finishing with nine points, four assists and four turnovers in only 18 minutes.

"It's a disappointing homecoming," said Brooks, who attended Franklin High School. "We just lost a game and now it's important we don't let it hit us (against Washington State on Saturday)."

Washington's pressure defense also hounded Oregon forward Ian Crosswhite, who finished with four points and seven turnovers in 24 minutes. The junior struggled to get into the flow of the offense and had several of his passes intercepted.

"We needed Aaron and Ian to play well," Oregon head coach Ernie Kent said. "Those two guys did not play well again and when those guys don't play well, we don't play well as a basketball team."

Despite the bad start, Oregon pulled to within four early in the second half when a tipin by Taylor cut the Washington lead to 40-36. The Ducks got no closer, however, as turnovers and the play of Husky forward Bobby Jones were too much for Oregon to overcome.

Jones scored 13 of Washington's next 23 points, including a pair of three-pointers, and finished with a team-high 15 points.

"In the first half I wasn't as aggressive and I knew in the second half I had to pick it up," Jones said. "When I got those open shots I told myself I was going to shoot them confidently and I did."

Tre Simmons also finished with 15 points for the Huskies, while Nate Robinson and Jamaal Williams each added 14.

Taylor led all scorers with 16 points for Oregon, while forward Maarty Leunen grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds.

"People are going to say (we lost) because we're young and we don't understand the energy it takes to come out and play hard," Taylor said. "We're just going to take it as a learning experience and see the way (Washington) came out with such fire and intensity on defense and try to emulate that."
