IN BRIEF

Men's tennis team takes two at home, sits at 5-1

The Oregon men's tennis team improved its record to 5-1 after easily defeating Saint Mary's and Eastern Washington, each 7-0, in a Saturday doubleheader.

Senior Sven Swinnen captured

two singles victories over the weekend and needs just one more win to become Oregon's all-time career leader in singles victories. Oded Teig is the current record holder with 69 during his four-year career at Oregon from 1999 to 2003.

Each of the Ducks who competed won their singles and doubles matches. The men finished the weekend with a 12-0 record in singles and a 6-0 record in doubles.

"It was nice to snag two wins," Oregon head coach Kevin Kowalik said. "We've mixed up the lineups a little and given everyone a chance to pick up some playing time early in the season, which we think is going to help us down the road."

Next up, the Oregon men will travel to face Brigham Young in Provo, Utah, at noon on Saturday.

region. The Puyallup, Wash., native assisted the Region IV Olympic Development Program from 2001-03 and has been the head coach since 2004. Currently, the Duck roster consists of only six native Oregonians.

As the Vikings' head coach, Erickson's players accumulated numerous personal accolades. Ten athletes earned All-Big Sky first-team honors during Erickson's tenure, along with three Newcomer of the Year awards and two Big Sky Golden Boot Awards, the trophy given to the conference's leading point scorer.

Erickson beat out 140 applicants for the Duck job, including 40 current Division I and high level Division II head coaches.

Oregon's new coach will have limited recruiting time before the national signing day Feb. 2. The Ducks, who have non-binding oral commitments from five women, have 3.5 scholarships available.

Track: Logsdon falls short of indoor school record

"We're hoping to take it up a notch next weekend in Flagstaff."

Oregon sprint distance athletes will travel to Flagstaff, Ariz., for the Mountain T's Invitational Feb. 3.

In Seattle, Duck middle-distance and field-event athletes competed in the Dempsey Indoor Center in the Washington Invitational.

Senior Eric Logsdon, an All-American in outdoor track (5,000 meters) and cross country, earned an automatic NCAA bid in the 3,000 meters. Logsdon, a Canby native, finished fourth in the unusually tough field with a time of 7:54.29, beating the NCAA automatic mark of 7:56.00. Logsdon's finish was only 0.03 seconds behind Steve Fein's indoor school record (7:54.26).

"I knew I was in good shape and could be close to if not under eight minutes," Logsdon said.

On the field, senior Leonidas Watson earned a provisional mark in his first long jump effort of the season. The St. Louis native finished second at with a leap of 24-6 1/2. Watson holds the Ducks' all-time indoor long jump record (25-6 1/4) and finished ninth in last year's NCAA Indoor finale.

For the women, senior Laura Harmon, finished fourth in the 5,000 meters with a 16:29.17 effort, her first 5K of the year. Harmon met the NCAA provisional mark of 16:45 with little trouble and was within 20 seconds of the automatic mark of 16:10.

"It was a good opener," Harmon said. "But I also know that it's likely not fast enough to qualify for nationals, so I'll have to come back and run faster in two weeks."

Duck athletes will travel around the country in the next several weeks in preparation for the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Indoor Championships in Seattle Feb. 25 and 26, and the NCAA Indoor Championships in Fayetteville, Ark., March 11 and 12.
