

A VOICE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

LAUREN WIMER | SENIOR PHOTOGRAPHER

Community activist and self-proclaimed "Moss Street Defender" Zachary Vishanoff stood at the East 13th Avenue entrance to campus Wednesday afternoon to inform students and faculty about what he said are the destructive University policies threatening the east campus neighborhood. The sign admonishes University Housing Director Mike Eyster and University President Dave Frohnmaier for what Vishanoff said is their determination to remove all houses in the east campus area.

IN BRIEF

Senate panel rejects concealed weapons bill

SALEM — A Senate panel shot down a bill Thursday that would have authorized school districts to bar concealed weapons permit holders from taking guns to schools.

The Senate Judiciary Committee defeated the measure on a 4-3 count, with Sen. Floyd Prozanski, D-Eugene, joining the committee's three Republicans in voting against it.

The measure was a priority for Sen. Ginny Burdick, D-Portland, the committee's chairwoman and the Legislature's most outspoken gun control advocate.
