The pounding bass of hip-hop welcomes customers as they enter Jogger's Bar and Grill on any Saturday night. Inside, college students and other young customers string out along the long bar and surrounding tables ordering drinks, huddling with friends, becoming friendly with strangers on the dance floor and gambling their week's wages on video poker in the corner. Unlike some college bars, where drinks are weak, cover charges are high and you have to elbow your way through sweaty crowds of people leaving yourself prone to being pinched on the butt or having a drink spilled on you, Jogger's offers a refreshing change of scene. At Joggers, drinks are strong and cheap, the bartenders are friendly and quick to serve, and the pretenses and attitudes of other bars don't exist. Just come and have a good time. Jogger's is an ideal place to come with a group of friends looking for a fun, easy, and cheap night out. For $10 on a Saturday night, you can get two drinks, some of Jogger's famous hot wings, and even buy a rose for the special person you met there that night.
