Check or bet. Raise or fold. Go all-in with aces or bluff your opponent into folding the better hand. These are among the many options you're presented with when playing poker at the Chinook Winds Casino and Resort in Lincoln City. Whether you enjoy battling it out with other guests in a Texas Hold 'Em poker tournament (offered four days a week with a $25 buy-in) or the standard $3 - $6 limit game, you're sure to be challenged to bring your A-game. If poker is not your bag, there are many other games of chance to keep you occupied. With over 1,200 slot machines to choose from and a variety of table games, including blackjack, craps, roulette and more, there is surely something for everyone. Chinook Winds also offers musical entertainment, with a recent visit from the 79-year-old-but-still-kickin' B.B. King in March. In April and May, Chinook Winds plays host to Huey Lewis and the News as well as Las Vegas legend Wayne Newton. Just a two-hour drive from Eugene, Chinook Winds Casino offers fun and excitement and the chance to win it all...or go bust. Either way, a trip to this casino is a guaranteed winner.
