Coaches: Ho will bring recent Division I experience to Ducks

thing is just having the mutual respect. I think just with my playing experience and then coaching for three years, having that balance has really helped me elevate how to deal with players and the relationships."

The new assistant coaches will primarily develop the strengths of Oregon's backcourt players. Ho said the team's overall balance stands out to her both on the court and in personal life.

"One of the most attractive things was just the people," Ho said. "Bev's accolades speak for themselves; she's an incredible coach. It's a dream come true. It's the perfect situation, so I'm really excited about that."

As for the climatic change of scenery, Brown and Ho said they either packed an umbrella or plan to buy one soon.

"It's very nice to see green grass and rain," said Brown, who reported dry weather conditions in Australia. "I don't know when I'll get sick of it, but that's one of the great things with basketball: It's an indoor sport."

Track: Kedar Inico takes home Most Improved Athlete Award

indoor long and triple jump records with jumps of 25 feet, 11 inches and 52-10 1/4, respectively.

In the 2005 outdoor season, Watson is ranked in the top five nationally in both events. The St. Louis native finished top-three in both the Pac-10 conference meet and the Regionals. Watson ranks fourth all-time on Oregon's outdoor lists in both events.

Fellow senior Inico took home the Perry Hollman (Most Improved Athlete) Award. The Queens, N.Y., native has had arguably one of the best individual seasons in 2005. Inico's run started during the indoor season when he set indoor school records in the 200 and as part of the 4x400 relay squad. Both feats earned him All-American honors.

Inico's success continued into the championship part of Oregon's schedule as the senior has taken the 400 title in both the Pac-10s and last week's Regionals, vaulting him into third on Oregon's all-time 400 list.

Logsdon was given the Bill Dellinger Cross Country Award after leading the Ducks in the West Regional last fall and ranking second on the squad in multiple meets. Logsdon has earned multiple All-American honors and is a three-time Pac-10 Second Team honoree.
