

Football: Whitehead racks up 222 yards

Whitehead picked through the Sun Devil defense with ease. He gained 122 rushing yards and one touchdown on 21 carries. Whitehead also caught nine passes for 100 yards and one touchdown. After sitting out last week's win at Stanford, Whitehead says he felt fresh and relaxed.

"I felt really good coming off the injury, pretty healthy," Whitehead said. "My leg was rested, so it was fun."

Clemens threw for 278 yards and two touchdowns, with Williams accounting for 108 of those yards and one touchdown. This was the 10th 100-plus receiving yard game for Williams in his career, tops all-time among Oregon athletes.

The Oregon special teams came up with a clutch blocked punt in the third quarter. Nick Reed broke through the blockers and recovered the ball at the one-yard line. Whitehead punched it in on the next play, scoring the game-winning touchdown.

The secondary held Arizona State wide receiver Derek Hagan to four catches for 46 yards, a season-low on yardage. Hagan, who ranks fourth in the Pacific-10 Conference in career receiving yards with 3,368, had been averaging more than seven catches and 116 receiving yards per game.

"It all comes down to execution," Hagan said. "We just didn't execute on offense at all tonight. All week in practice we weren't executing and that's where it all really starts. Once game time comes around, we have to be ready to play."

Phinisee returned the favor two plays later with an interception returned to the Arizona State 33-yard line.

"That was huge," Clemens said. "We had each other's back today. That's what great teams do."

Oregon was flagged for 36 penalty yards in the first quarter alone. They finished with six penalties for 71 yards.

On a positive note, Kyle Weather-spoon recovered a fumble by Phinisee on a punt return early in the third quarter. The ball deflected upfield off Phinisee's chest, where Weatherspoon pounced on it at the 32-yard line between two Arizona State defenders.

Luck struck more than once for the Ducks as Max Unger recovered a fumble by Cameron Colvin on a reverse late in the third quarter.

Horoscope by Holiday Mathis

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (October 10). There's much to look forward to this year! For starters, finances flourish when your main source of income goes through significant changes. Romance brings with it a different lifestyle this winter. Singles could be married by February. Golden career moments are bright spots through January and February. Love is wonderful with a Leo or a Taurus. Your lucky numbers are: 20, 1, 11, 13 and 53.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Your media intake is crucial to your good mood. So stop watching those crime dramas and biographies of serial killers. Focus on happy, innocent things -- fluffy white clouds, little league games, puppies ...

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Someone hilarious will shake you out of whatever rut you are in, including a financial rut. Have small bills on hand. You'll likely be tipping somebody or buying candy to support a charity.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Taking full responsibility for those little things in your life is a joy. The stars favor maintenance projects. Groom your pet, water your plants and shampoo your rug. You'll either get a brilliant idea or attract a new financial resource.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). It will be difficult to tame the chaos in your mind, and there is no benefit in running from it or trying to ignore it either. So accept that your mind is in a raucous state, and maybe some bit of genius will emerge from the clutter.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Grass and roots will break through asphalt -- sooner or later, the forces of nature always overrule what man constructs. On a personal level, this point is proven today when you try to control nature's work in your own life.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Character building, though now an undervalued process, never goes out of style. If you're a parent, consider that upbringing trumps education any day. The same applies to personal development. Be strict with yourself.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). A loved one may "accidentally" lie to you. (Even though he happens to know the truth, it is conveniently omitted from any conversation you share.) Luckily, the stars grant you super-senses. You're a walking lie detector.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Be wary of heart-felt sentiments. Perfectly sincere words are nonetheless meaningless if they are not backed up with action. Align yourself with people who get things done.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Why waste energy? Stall a project until you can get more specific directions from higher-ups. Daring changes to your appearance pay off. Someone finds you mysterious and attractive. Build the intrigue by revealing very little.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). A minor setback will be a major motivator. Success in love depends on how well you are able to communicate your true self. A quality you admired in others will be yours -- practice makes perfect.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Comparing yourself to others only makes you feel less powerful than you really are. Compete with yourself, and you'll tap into your true potential. This evening is a chance to tell the world what needs to be changed!

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). A goal with no completion date attached to it goes unfulfilled for a long period. Deadlines promote creati-
