Housing: Rumor circulates of possible Dec. 1 decision

"I know there's this sense of like a hammer waiting to fall," Miller said.

Dyke said the University doesn't want to finalize a sale too soon because leases at Westmoreland do not expire until June 2006. Selling the property early in the year could make it difficult to honor the leases, and "that's certainly not appropriate," she said.

A worker in University Housing, who is not authorized to speak to the press and wishes to remain anonymous, said staffers were told on Friday that University President Dave Frohn-mayer will decide by Dec. 1 whether to sell the property in June or wait until 2007. If the apartments are sold in June, Westmoreland tenants will be allowed to move into Spencer View Family Housing or housing in the east campus neighborhood and pay the same rates they are paying at Westmoreland, the source said.

Interim Vice President for Student Affairs and Director of University Housing Mike Eyster said he has not heard anything about a Dec. 1 decision.

"I would know if that happened," Eyster said.

He said the information presented at the Family Housing Board meeting is the most current available.

"This sounds like somebody's imagination is working overtime," he said.
