The Fertility Center of OREGON

WOMEN HELPING WOMEN

MAKE A DREAM COME TRUE. BECOME AN EGG DONOR.

Since 1978, The Fertility Center of Oregon has helped many women become mothers. You can help us to continue to change lives by becoming an egg donor for infertile couples.

Procedures are done in a local clinic over a six-week period, requiring 8 to ten visits. Donors are compensated $4,000 for their contribution. If you are a healthy woman aged 21-31 and want to help make a dream come true, call 683-1559 or visit our Web site at www.fertilitycenteroforegon.com.

Football: Defense keeps Hass out of end zone

Oregon's 56 points is the highest point total for either team in the series, and it is the largest margin of victory since a 44-0 Oregon win in 1987.

Oregon quarterback Dennis Dixon turned in his most complete game by connecting on 12 of 17 passes for 204 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions. Dixon, who has split time at quarterback with Brady Leaf since Clemens' injury, received the majority of the time under center on Saturday. Leaf was 5 of 11 passing for 54 yards against the Beavers.

Oregon improved to 4-0 since Clemens' injury.

"People gave us not much of a chance after Kellen went down," said wideout Demetrius Williams, one of 13 Oregon seniors who played their final game in Eugene Saturday. "I tip my hat to (Dennis) and Brady. They did a great job and stepped it up all year."

Williams and Whitehead, both seniors, helped spark an offense that produced 402 total yards compared with Oregon State's 297. Whitehead rushed for 81 yards on 12 carries and a touchdown and caught another, and Williams caught five passes for 82 yards and one touchdown.

Gunderson, making his first career start for Oregon State after last week's injury to Matt Moore, was 22 of 43 for 175 yards and one touchdown. He was intercepted four times.

Mike Hass was the recipient of 107 of Gunderson's yards. Hass' 10 receptions Saturday gave the former walk-on 220 for his career, an Oregon State record.

Last season against the Ducks, Hass had 154 yards receiving and two touchdowns. He did not score on Saturday.

"One of the things we wanted to do was contain Mike Hass," Oregon coach Mike Bellotti said. "We knew he was going to get his catches, but we didn't want to allow the big play or allow him to get in the end zone."

Yvenson Bernard gained 128 rushing yards to pace a largely ineffective Oregon State offense. Despite having 19 more offensive plays than the Ducks, the Beavers had 105 fewer yards.

Oregon's win marks the ninth straight time the home team has won in the Civil War series. As the final minutes ticked down, fans chanted, "B-C-S, B-C-S" inside Autzen Stadium.

"I'm very proud of this group of kids; they are an amazing group, the seniors especially in terms of their character, their pride, and their poise," Bellotti said. "They've done what they needed to do to be in the best bowl game possible."

well as receiving yards (2,633) and fifth in receptions (158).

"I really don't look at the records anymore," Williams said. "It's not really an issue to me. The biggest issue is that we come out and get victories."

Seven and counting

Oregon cornerback Aaron Gipson intercepted two passes Saturday, his sixth and seventh of the season. His first interception was returned 60 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter Saturday, getting the Ducks on the board early.

"I knew he would have two picks this game," fellow Oregon cornerback Justin Phinisee said. "I call him little spring. He's so small, but he's got so much energy. He gets it going, gets energized, and he makes plays."

Before the season started Gipson's defensive goal was 10 interceptions, which isn't out of reach in his mind.

"I think I probably got another two in me, another three in me, try to get to my goal of 10," Gipson said.

Gipson leads the nation in interceptions this season. He also sits in a tie for fifth in Oregon career interceptions with 13.

Finding the end zone

Freshman running back and kickoff returner Jonathan Stewart began the second half Saturday with a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, his second of the season and the fourth-longest in Oregon history.

He became the first Duck to return two kickoff returns for a touchdown. The first came against Montana in the home opener.

Stewart also ran for a 1-yard touchdown to close Oregon's scoring in the second quarter. He has nine touchdowns on the season — six rushing, two kickoff returns and one receiving.
