

WOMEN HELPING WOMEN

MAKE A DREAM COME TRUE.
BECOME AN EGG DONOR.

Since 1978, The Fertility Center of Oregon has helped many women become mothers. You can help us to continue to change lives by becoming an egg donor for infertile couples.

Procedures are done in a local clinic over a six-week period, requiring 8 to ten visits. Donors are compensated $4,000 for their contribution. If you are a healthy woman aged 21-31 and want to help make a dream come true, call 683-1559 or visit our Web site at www.fertilitycenteroforegon.com.

Knight Library open 24/7 through end of the term

The Knight Library will be open 24/7 during Dead Week and Finals Week, so students looking to escape their noisy roommates and other distractions can find a safe haven anytime.

The library's doors will remain open from 8 a.m. today until 7 p.m. on Dec. 9.

During regular hours, the best places to find quiet will most likely be on the fourth floor, Access Services Department Head Shirien Chappell said, because she often sees people sleeping in that area.

Chappell also recommends the designated quiet room on the south side of the second floor.

During regular hours, it's usually noisy around the service desks and reference area, but because these services will not be staffed after normal business hours they may be quieter, she said.

Chappell said group-study rooms are scattered around the perimeters of the second and third floors and are available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Students, faculty and staff using the library during extended hours will need to show their University IDs and will not be able to check out library materials. Computers and printers in the Information Technology Center and photocopy machines will still be available.

Honor society hosts clothing drive charity

The University chapter of the Golden Key International Honor Society is hosting a clothing drive for local charities today and Wednesday in the EMU.

The academic honor society is encouraging students to bring hats, jackets, gloves, sweaters, long-sleeved shirts, pants and bedding, including blankets and sheets.

"There are so many ways that students can benefit the community. We are trying to assist homeless and low-income people right now when it's needed the most," Golden Key-Oregon Chapter Secretary Jennifer Surdyk said in a press release.

The society will donate the clothing to the Eugene Mission, the White Bird Clinic, Looking Glass Youth and Family Services and Womenspace Domestic Violence Services.

The society will have a table for donations in the EMU's main lobby from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. today and from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Deputy consul general of Israel speaks at Hillel

Omer Caspi, San Francisco's deputy consul general of Israel, will speak tonight at 7 p.m. on the Israeli and Palestinian political landscape, the Israeli disengagement, security and prospects for peace in the region.

Oregon Hillel and the University's Jewish Student Union are encouraging students to attend the speech and stick around for a question-and-answer session afterward.

Caspi was appointed to the Israeli Consulate in Jan. 2003, after working as a projects manager in Israel's Global Operations Department, first secretary at the Northeast Asia Department at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and second secretary for the Israeli Embassy's Cultural and Academic Affairs in Beijing, China.

The speech tonight will be held at Oregon Hillel, the Foundation for Jewish Campus Life, at 1059 Hilyard St.
