Axis of Evil finger puppets

$19.50 at Modern
207 E. Fifth St.
541-686-1935

For the burgeoning political scientist, or the graduate student with too much free time this set of four finger puppets comes complete with Kim Jong Il, Saddam, Khamelel and, of course, their pal President Bush. The puppets are also magnetic so when you're not using them you can keep these international figures safely stuck to the refrigerator.

Cranium Turbo Edition

$34 at The Elephant's Trunk Toy Company
5th Street Public Market
541-342-8548
The hip, hit modern board game gets updated with a new edition. Old activities, like sculpting, drawing, humming and trivia, are supplemented with six new activities, 1,000 new cards and a new electronic timer with music and lights.

25th Anniversary Rubik's Cube Puzzle

$12 at The Elephant's Trunk Toy Company
5th Street Public Market
541-342-8548

Though most twenty-somethings probably best remember this puzzle as teething object rather than a nostalgic toy, the six-sided brain teaser is still loads of time-killing fun. A quarter century after it became a gaming fad, you can now turn to the Internet if you get stuck.

Apple iPod Video and iPod Nano
$269 (30 GB) or $369 (60 GB) for the Video at the University Bookstore
$179 (2 GB) or $229 (4 GB) for the Nano at the University Bookstore
895 E. 13th Ave.
541-346-4331

The must-have on everyone's list is one of the newest iPods. The Nano is sleek and compact, roughly the size of a business card and the thickness of a pencil, but the Video can house an entire music, photo and video collection. The only challenge the giver might face with this gift is giving it away.
