For Sale—Grub oak wood. Ind. Phone 6525. 8-18-6t

At Albany the cost of paving has been a little less than $400 a lot, according to the Democrat.

Mrs. George H. Rycraft received a message this morning saying that her father, in Alsea, is dangerously ill. Mrs. Rycraft and Mrs. Hedrick left immediately for Alsea.

For Sale—3 room house, 13th and Washington. Phone 4274. 8-18-5t

Judge Denman got a whack at another drink Thursday afternoon and it cost old boozey $10 cash. He paid. The city is broke, so the officials have to make their salary some way, and recently the police department has been pulling up in good shape.

Though more than a half-hundred women attended a party in this city this week not one thought of letting the daily know of the event, and knowledge of the party did not come to hand until three days later. This office wants ALL the news and appreciates any information that will enable it to get an item while it is news.

Deans Cordley and Greer and Prof. C. I. Lewis came from Portland last night. Mr. Cordley enjoyed the meeting of college people at Portland particularly for the reason that he met there ten or fifteen of his old college mates, graduates of the Michigan Agricultural College twenty years ago. These men are now in high estate.

Eat Golden Rod Flakes, They are better for breakfast, Than old-fashioned corn cakes, And five minutes time, Is all that it takes At Kline's. 6-12-1f

Mr. and Mrs. William Webster and son Charles, of Fayette, Iowa, are expected to arrive in Corvallis today or tomorrow to visit their daughter, Miss Mae, who came to Oregon over a year ago for the benefit of her health. That the parents will be surprised at the change in their daughter is a certainty. Mr. Webster is a brother of Mrs. J. E. Fowells, of this city, and it is hoped the visitors may decide to remain here.

It is said that the property owners on Washington street propose to petition the city council to pave that street from Main to Ninth street. A petition has been or is being circulated and it is claimed a majority of the property holders are in favor of the improvement.

A very pleasant party was given at the home of A. B. Miller last evening in honor of Miss Bertha Beck of Corvallis, who is spending the summer at Mr. Miller's. About thirty were present. Choice refreshments were served and games and music helped to make a delightful evening.—Albany Democrat.

To EXCHANGE—House and barn with two lots in Eugene for Corvallis property. T. J. Pettit, 416 3rd St. 8-17-6t

J. M. Greear and wife expect to leave next week for Corvallis, where they will make their home during the attendance of their son Harold at O. A. C. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Greear will also accompany them, Claude having leased a large residence in which he will conduct a students' rooming house.—Hillsboro Independent.

Melons on ice—Andrews & Kerr's bakery. 19-13

Miss Merle Hollister left today for the bay, to be gone a week. The young lady is going to be seriously disappointed if she gets back to Corvallis without an extra ring on her hand, so elegibles at the sea shore should take notice. The G.-T. is willing to affirm that there isn't a more lovely dispositioned creature west of the Rockies, and she really isn't a bad looking when the rat produces the proper fluffiness.

Flour sacks for sale, 25 cents a dozen. Andrews & Kerr's bakery. 19-13

The Palace put on one of the best all-round programs last night that the patrons of that place have had the pleasure of witnessing for some time. The vaudeville skit by Carver & Oliver is "Henpecked," a lively sketch that is chock full of fun from the first word to the last. The motion picture film, "The Lost Invitation," is a comedy film, full of action and the play is well staged and acted. The other film, "The Tragedy of Moudon," is a French story of jealousy and murder and is full of tragic situations. The bill will be repeated tonight. At the Star tonight. At the Star tonight Manager Small will have several good things in the way of moving pictures to offer the patrons of that cozy little theater.

J. F. Ralston Gone Wrong

seen of Ralston and Van Cleve passed up the matter and returned to Corvallis.

No Doubt of Crimality

But for the fact that Ralston forget the Bicknell note, it might be believed that Corvallis would see him again, but that act queers him. Mr. Bicknell will not lose the $80.40, nor will Van Cleve lose the amount of his note if Ralston has secured money on it. The company will lose the value of the check Mr. Bicknell paid Ralston and also lose the commission paid him for the policies to be issued to Bicknell and Vancleve. In a letter to Mr. Bicknell, the Oregon Life admits that it has paid the full commission on this note, so all told, Ralston is perhaps $125 or $150 ahead, if his operations have gone no further.

Both Mr. Bicknell and Mr. Van Cleve, and others who knew him, say that he appeared to be anything but a real sharper, being too crude to be an old hand at the business. Ralston hails from North Carolina, so he said, and came here properly credentialed by the Oregon Life, which does not deny his official connection.

COLLEGE TIES VERY STRONG

Classmates of Will D. Sutton Organize to Render Assistance.

That college ties are strong is evidenced by the following letter received by Secretary W. A. Jensen yesterday:

Portland, Aug. 18, '09.
W. A. Jensen, O. A. C.,
Corvallis, Oregon.

Dear Friend:—Yesterday, Will D. Sutton, a member of our class, fell from a trestle at Oswega and was very seriously injured. The members of our class who are in Portland wish to make it possible for all the class to help him in his misfortune. If you could have the Registrar prepare a list with addresses of the members of the Senior class of this year, it would greatly aid us.

Thanking you for any trouble you may take and with best personal regards, I am Very respectfully yours,
R. R. CLARK.

As the Gazette-Times published yesterday, young Sutton died from his injuries and his remains were sent to his old home in South Carolina. The intention of Clark and Sutton's classmates was certainly of the best, and the only regret is that the young man was past their help in any way.

MONROE AND THAT VICINITY

Mrs. Mary Barclay has returned to her home after a visit to the A. Y. P.

Mrs. Anna Martin is visiting at Newport.

Mr. Cissen and family have the diphtheria.

Miss Florence Zierolf and Mrs. Mamie Hall made a business trip to Corvallis Thursday.

The threshers in the neighborhood have quit until the spring grain ripens.

Miss Grace Watkins, who has been visiting with her parents the past few days, left yesterday for Seattle where she intends visiting for some time.

Mr. Rexford's barn was destroyed by fire last Friday morning.

Mrs. A. A. Meek has returned after a visit with her parents at Coburg.
