Espanita opened the vaudeville program at Palace theater last night with her Spanish dance. She appeared in a beautiful Spanish costume and her interpretation of this famous dance was the best ever presented here. Hoyt gave a few more experiments in magic, performing successfully the famous watch and loaf trick of the celebrated Hermann. The moving pictures were much enjoyed, two of the films being trick ones and good at that. The bill will be repeated tonight.

F. L. MILLER
142 Second Street

Mrs. Wm. Haupt returned to Salem today from a visit here with her mother.

Wanted—25, 30, or 50x100 foot business room on Second street between Adams and Jackson, or on Madison between First and Fifth. Will take long lease on new building, or old if property is desirable. Willing to offer good inducement for new building. Call at this office.

Secretary B. W. Johnson, of the Presidential Postmasters' Association, is sending out notices to the effect that Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock will attend the Postmasters' Convention at Portland and that the date of same has been changed from Sept. 11 to Sept. 15 and 16.

Mrs. Nellie Singer, of Clearfield, Iowa, has been visiting F. L. Miller since Sunday, and will leave this evening on her trip through California and Texas, en route home. Clearfield, Iowa, is the town Mr. Miller made famous, or notorious, in his youth by his feats as a ball player, and in those days Mrs. Singer, as a maiden, was mascot of the Clearfield team. She came to the Seattle fair several days ago, stopping at Denver en route, and has decided to locate there.

Mesdames Chas. Colbert and Ambrose Lewis entertained a large company of Iowa ladies at the home of the latter on 3rd street Tuesday from 2 until 5 p. m. The house was tastily decorated with sweet peas and LaFrance roses. A very elaborate luncheon was served during the afternoon, the guests pronouncing the entertainment ideal; and all agreed they preferred Oregon climate just now to old Iowa with its thermometers registering 107 degrees in the shade.

A. L. Stevenson, the popular auctioneer, will hold a public sale for J. G. Winkle on the latter's farm, ten miles south of Corvallis, Saturday, September 11. The property to be offered consists of stock, implements vehicles, household goods and other articles. A big free lunch will be served at noon, Mr. Stevenson is making a great success of the sales he is called upon to hold.

Of the coming of President Taft, the Albany Democrat says: "As the President is scheduled to leave Portland about 6 o'clock on Sunday evening, Oct. 2, passing Albany about 9 o'clock, it is quite probable that the people of this city will not even see the distinguished chief executive, weight 310 pounds, but we can sit on the prospective seats at the depot and see the train stop to register, for it has to do that, and perhaps get a drink of water at this dry town. Even Jonathan Bourne can't keep this honor from us. Perhaps some one will be permitted also to yell: 'Hello, Bill,' and perhaps Bill will come out on the rear platform and show himself. Roosevelt did that much."

For Rent—Furnished house, last house on Monroe street, four blocks west of Mechanical building. Inquire of Geo. G. Booco at the house.

W. W. Chapman, for more than a year a bookkeeper in the Benton County National Bank, will leave next Sunday for Ouray, Colorado, to accept his old position with the Miners & Merchants bank. Ouray is one of the five or six "loveliest" spots on earth, but Chapman had to leave two years ago on account of the health of his wife. That difficulty is now straightened out and as the old boy has not yet been weaned from his love for the mountain town made famous by its tremendous output of gold and silver, a telegram from his former employers was sufficient to induce him to leave Corvallis and the Willamette. While Chapman would never take a beauty prize nor startle the world with the noise he is making, he is a pleasant gentleman, (white), and while here managed to keep out of jail. That's something, for all bookkeepers and cashiers are not so careful. He will go back to Ouray with the hearty best wishes of the circle in which he moved while here.

Matches in the vest pocket and an exceedingly hot Klamath Falls sun did E. T. Burger, son of R. E. Burger of this city, a very bad turn several days ago. Mr. Burger is a surveyor and with another is working in the Klamath Falls county. He is one of those referred to in the following clipping from a Southern Oregon paper, which says: "Last Friday while the surveyors were at work in Langell valley they met with an accident which is unaccounted for but the loss is there just the same. They had a team and spring wagon hired of John Shook and that morning drove to where their work commenced and tying the team up to a tree, took their instruments and started out. On their return after stopping work they discovered that their wagon had burned up and also the hair of the horses tails. They had left their coats in the wagon along with a lot of grade stakes and the supposition is that there were matches in the coats and being in the hot sun had ignited. The fire completely destroyed the wagon and burning the tongue off let the horses get further away from the fire, thereby saving the ruination of a couple of good horses."
